A SIGNATURE OF THANKS

Former NHL star Bobby Baun signed copies of his book, Lowering the Boom, during a thank you night for coaches and managers in the Whitchurch-Stouffville Minor Hockey Association at The Earl of Whitchurch Tuesday. Here, Baun signs for Gary Coutts.

SDSS tracksters tune up for outdoor season

Dan Coskun and Natalie Geiger led a Stouffville District Secondary School contingent of competitors at the recent York Region Athletic Association indoor games at York University by earning first-place efforts.

Competing in the junior boys shot-put, Coskun had a toss of 15.33 metres to win the event.

Geiger, also a junior, won the 60m with a time of 7.99 seconds.

Among other notable efforts posted by Spartan entrants, Greg Legault was second in the senior boys' long jump and fifth in triple jump.

Sean Coleshill was fifth in the senior boys' 800m.

Among midgets, James Moss was second in the 1,500m.

In the junior field, Matt Sparks was third in the 1,500m while Malcolm Forbes had a pair of fifth-place efforts in the 1,500m and 800m.

Megan Nesland finished fourth in the long jump.

Rugby boys try hard

Matt Raguseo scored three tries and kicked three converts to lead the Spartans' junior boys' rugby team to a 41-7 road win over Dunbarton Secondary School in an exhibition contest last Thursday.

Luke Bartell and Joe Beare each added one try for the Spartans.

In other exhibition games that day against Dunbarton, the Spartan seniors fell 17-0 and the bantam Spartans dropped a 7-0 decision.
