bench.

"We only needed a tie to advance and we weren't going to go past second place in the standings so we rested a few weary bodies," said Spartans head coach Rob Edmondson.

"But give credit to Aurora. They're a good team and when they put it together in the second half they looked good."

The Spartans will face the first place team in the East Division in a quarter-final playoff game next Tuesday on the road. As of press deadline, the Spartans will face the Brother Andre Catholic High School Cardinals or Unionville High School.

Prior to Tuesday's tie, the Spartans took to the road Monday for a game against the Sir William Mulock Secondary School Ravens (Newmarket) and prevailed 4-0.

Kayla Moule, Brittany Moreau, Liz Knox and Sam Sheridan each scored once for the Spartans.

Knox and Jen Carroll split goaltending duties for the Spartans.

Last Thursday, the Spartans played host to Huron Heights Secondary School (Newmarket) and emerged with a 3-1 win.

Batten accounted for all three Spartan tallies in a game played during a torrential downpour.

Last Friday, the Spartans travelled to Uxbridge to compete in their third tournament of the season and came away with their third championship that was capped off with a 2-1 win over the host Uxbridge Secondary School Tigers on penalty kicks in the title tilt.

Batten scored a goal with less than one minute remaining in regulation time to force the issue into overtime and penalty kicks.

Moreau potted the winning goal in the penalty kick session.

Knox played a strong game in net to help preserve the win.

The Spartans reached the final after defeating Anderson Collegiate (Whitby) 1-0 on penalty kicks, Dr. E.J. Donevan Collegiate Institute (Oshawa) 1-0 and Father Leo J. Austin Catholic High School (Whitby) 2-0.

Boys tackle opening game wins

The Spartans senior and junior boys rugby teams opened the York Region Athletic Association last Wednesday on a positive note by defeating the visiting Markham District High School Marauders.

In the senior contest, Jason Lock scored a try and Bjorn McSorley booted a convert to lift the Spartans to an 8-0 win.

The junior Spartans received single tries from Matt Raguseo, James Beare and Brayden Pettifer in a 15-0 victory over the Marauders.

The juniors also took to the pitch last Thursday at Fletcher's Field in Markham for the Xtreme Tournament and won their first two games over Oakville Trafalgar Secondary School 7-5 and Lindsay Collegiate Institute 10-5.

Jordan Lofthouse had a try and Raguseo booted an extra point for the Spartans in the win over Oakville Trafalgar. David Hoover scored a try for the Spartans in the win over Lindsay while Raguseo booted a convert and penalty kick.

The juniors were slated to play last Friday, but had their game postponed due to poor playing conditions caused by last Thursday's inclement weather.

The Spartan seniors were also scheduled to play in the Red Hot Tournament last Friday and Saturday at Fletcher's Fields. But poor playing conditions postponed the event to this Friday.

The junior Spartans will return play while the seniors won't, noted head coach Jamie Hewitt.

Mennos' season opener delayed again by rain

Mother Nature has not been co-operative with the Stouffville Mennos.

For the second straight game, the Mennos had their Oshawa City and District Fastball League opener postponed Tuesday against the host Oshawa Juniors due to rain and a wet playing field.

The Mennos hope to open the regular season May 24 at Aurora.

The first home game for the Mennos is scheduled for May 25 against Markham.
