

SOUNDS FOR AFRICA TODAY

STAFF PHOTO/SUSIE KOCKERSCHIEDT

Musicians Justin Kerswill (from front), Marcus McDowell, Kevin Pogue and Paul Plett will perform during a free benefit concert, The Arts for Africa, at the Lions picnic shelter in Stouffville Memorial Park today from 1 to 5 p.m. Money raised will help pay for clean drinking water for the people of Igoma, Africa. Other activities will include an art show and children's crafts. June 3 is the rain date.

AIDS benefit tonight

You can enjoy an evening of entertainment tonight while helping a great cause.

The One Drop of Water event is an evening of community, performance, art, and awareness to benefit those affected by HIV/AIDS in Africa. The event begins at 7:30 p.m. at The Varley Art Gallery at 216 Main St. in Unionville.

The evening features Glenn Marais, Nathaniel James and his band Randolph Dancers and other artists, poets and singers.

Tickets are $25. For more information, call 905-953-9056.

Machete used in salon robbery

A Markham hair salon was robbed Thursday by two men brandishing a machete and a chain. Two men entered the L.A. Kong Hair Salon on Hillcroft Drive around 5 p.m., with a machete and a long chain in hand.

They approached the woman working inside and demanded cash.

When she complied they held her at gunpoint.
