GLAD PARK PUBLIC SCHOOL PHOTO

SLIDING SUE

Mayor Sue Sherban officially opens the Glad Park Public School playground by going down the slide as principal Val Taylor (left) looks on during the school's second fun fair last week. Money raised will offset class field trips next year and $2,000 will be donated to the paediatrics ward at Markham Stouffville Hospital. The Mayor's Foundation, the town, Fieldgate Homes and the school community made donations to help pay for the playground.

Only Emerson Tool shutting down in 2007

The story, Longtime Markham company ships out in the May 25 Sun-Tribune was incorrect. Only Emerson Tool Company, one of nine units of the Markham-based electronics manufacturer, will be shut down next year. The division and its 380 employees produce wet/dry vacs and humidifiers. That work will be moved to Mexico and the U.S. when Emerson Tool Company is shut down next March. Dave Baldrige, a spokesperson for a public relations firm retained by the St. Louis-based parent company, would neither confirm or deny if any of Emerson's other Markham operations would be shut down. The Sun-Tribune regrets the error.

Our Apologies...

To all our patrons who had to wait an unreasonable amount of time for their orders to be filled. Tino, the owner expresses his sincere apologies. We were overwhelmed & new surroundings, poorly instructed staff who did not communicate, and lack of full equipment put us too far behind. Tino also loves to eat well and not be kept waiting too long. He takes full blame and will endeavour to handle a heavy work load more efficiently in the future.

Sincerely,
Tino
