More than 2,400 visitors attended the Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum's 33rd annual antique and classic car show Sunday – and picked their favourite vehicles from more than 400 on display.

Winners of the drivers' choice awards were: antique winner, Ralph and Annette Turner for their 1929 Packard and runner-up, Frank Francis, 1941 Cadillac convertible. The classic winner was Grant Kitching for his 1957 Chev pickup with Hugh Sutton's Chevy pickup truck coming in as runner-up. In the novelty category, Tom Sawyer won for his 1928 Ford while Erik Mogilever came close behind for his 1968 Lomax 223.

Car show visitors agreed with the drivers as to the people's choice winner in the antique category; they were Ralph and Annette Turner for the 1929 Packard; runner-up was Mike Lebovic for a 1935 Auburn. In the classic cars, Viv Agresti and a 1955 Chev were the winners while J. McCarthy was runner-up for a 1955 Cadillac convertible. Erik Mogilever found favour with visitors and drivers for his 1968 Lomax 223 with a 1951 Ford by an owner named Price coming in as runner-up.

Helmuth Vorkoetter won $970 in the 50/50 raffle. An equal amount will go to the museum's building projects. The show is the museum's major annual fundraiser.
