

Students run for Terry tomorrow

For Whitchurch-Stouffville, the 25th annual Terry Fox Marathon of Hope is history. Hundreds responded Sept. 17.

Runs for students here, and across Canada, are scheduled for tomorrow. Last year, more than three million young people, representing 9,000 schools took part.

Participating Whitchurch-Stouffville schools include Stouffville Secondary, Stouffville Christian, Whitchurch Highlands, Willowgrove, Glad Park, Summitview, Orchard

Park and St. Brigid

"Last year, we raised $1,200," SDSS teacher Sharon MacParlane said. "This year, we hope to top that."

The high school run is organized by the athletic council. The event begins at 11 a.m. and covers 5 km.

"Co-operation from school staff and students has been wonderful," Stouffville Terry Fox Run co-ordinator Sandy Schell Kennedy said. "It involves not only young people and teachers but entire families."

See fall colours from tourist train

If you want to see the changing fall colours while experiencing a vintage train ride, the York-Durham Heritage Railway has a new schedule of runs beginning this weekend.

Passengers might also catch glimpses of beavers, deer, turkeys and foxes. The fall schedule continues through October.

Trains leave Uxbridge station at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. and from Stouffville station at 1 p.m. on most Saturdays and all Sundays through Oct. 22.

Regular service is suspended on Oct. 14 for the first ever Fall Colour Excursion from Unionville to Uxbridge and Uxbridge to Unionville.

The train is wheelchair accessible at Uxbridge Station.

Round trip fares are $18 for adults, $12 for children, $15 for seniors and students. Children under two and seniors 90 and over travel free. Group discounts are available, along with family passes. For information call 905-852-3696.
