

Couple says thanks with charity event

From page 1.

Secondary School Friday, Oct. 13. The comedy and hypnosis show featuring Adolfo B. starts at 8 p.m.

"The exact time, two years to the day that Dr. Petrie's office called with my results," Mrs. Lipari said. "We didn't plan it this way and I'm not going to change the date but..."

She recalls it vividly. "That was the night everything changed. You wonder how you will get through it, but you get through it."

"The hardest part is your kids. You wonder if you will be there for your kids. Then, you have to tell your kids."

They got it through it with their children, ages 14, 11 and 8. There were seemingly endless appointments to make, anxiety to deal with and physical side effects, including hair loss.

They got through it with the community.

"We're so happy we moved here five years ago," Mrs. Lipari said. "So many wonderful things happened. So many people helped."

A steady stream of baked goods, flowers, cookie-grams and cards arrived regularly at their Stouffer

Street home. A fellow soccer mom gave the family $60 in restaurant certificates.

"Many of these people were almost strangers," she said. "It's just incredible what happened. It gives you strength. You feel loved."

Money raised at the Oct. 13 event will go to the cancer society, as a thank you to the drivers. But the Liparis hope the evening will also give them a chance to thank others who helped.

They also hope students at Stouffville Secondary attend.

"Everyone says there's nothing for young people in this town to do," Mr. Lipari said. "Here's something at their own school. We know there are good kids in this town looking for things to do and we're welcoming them."

A silent auction precedes the show, starting at 7 p.m.

Tickets are $15 at Shoeless Joe's and Shoppers Drug Mart in Stouffville and $20 at the door. Mrs. Lipari will be selling tickets outside Shoppers Saturday from 1 to 4 p.m. For more information, contact the Liparis at 905-642-5305 or rosa_lipari@yahoo.ca
