EMBRACE THE SPIRIT OF COMMUNITY

Discover the rewards of an innovative, diverse and welcoming workplace. Embrace a progressive environment, where passionate professionals work with a network of health partners to promote patient-centred care. Be part of a team dedicated to ensuring the health and wellness of everyone who calls us their hospital. A multi-site organization, Markham Stouffville Hospital is a place where every contribution marks advancement towards creating a centre of community care.

NURSING OPEN HOUSE

Thursday, October 26, 2006 • 11 a.m. - 7 p.m.
Hospital Auditorium • Markham Site

Our highly diverse communities are growing and changing rapidly, and so are their needs. As a result, we have opportunities in many clinical areas for caring, dedicated Nurses who share our commitment to making every experience with us great.

We pride ourselves on being a great place to work. Come and talk to us about what makes us a top choice for health care professionals: from ongoing professional and personal development initiatives, to open communication practices, self-scheduling, team-based decision-making, professional practice development, competitive compensation and benefits, a generous education bursary program, and a critical care sponsorship program.

On-site interviews are available. Refreshments will be served. Free parking will be provided to our Open House attendees. If you are unable to attend, please send your résumé to: Human Resources, Markham Stouffville Hospital, 381 Church Street, Markham, ON L3P 7P3. Fax: 905-472-7055.
