Charges have been laid after a man was found hiding in a Hwy. 48 garden shed following a two-car collision Thursday.

The driver of car that rear-ended another around 8 a.m. near Bethesda Road fled on foot into the bush.

The OPP called for help from the York Regional Police canine unit. A police dog found a man in a shed near Bloomington Road.

A 22-year-old Ajax man faces charges of breach of probation, failing to remain and driving without a licence.

The car was not registered in his name.

He appeared in Newmarket court yesterday.
