Christmas show gives peek at theatre season

BY HANNELORE VOLPE
Staff Writer

An Academy Christmas will give you a sneak peek at this season's shows by the York Durham Academy for the Performing Arts.

The Stouffville-based musical theatre group, which was founded by Stouffville resident Wayne Hill, has members ranging in age from six to adult.

An Academy Christmas features YDAPA's 20-member adult chorus and other performers Dec. 18 at 7:30 p.m. at Christ Church Anglican.

They'll present selections from this year's show schedule.

Grease: School Edition is first on YDAPA's schedule, running from Jan. 25 to 27 at EastRidge Evangelical Missionary Church in Stouffville.

From Feb. 22 to 24, you can follow the adventures of Mowgli, the boy raised by wolves in the Indian jungle. The production will be in the Great Hall of Christ Church in Stouffville.

A multi-age cast brings The Wizard of Oz to life from April 12 to 14 at EastRidge.

Orphaned street urchin Oliver rounds out the show program May 17 to 19 at the YCDSB Performing Arts Centre in Vaughan.

For more information and to order tickets, log on to www.y-show.ca or call 905-640-0823 ext. 3.
