Spirit knocks off nation's No. 2 team

Myles Gomes scored with nine seconds left in regulation to lift the Stouffville Spirit (15-9-1-2) to a 3-2 victory over the Aurora Tigers (25-2-1-0) at the Stouffville Arena in Provincial Jr. A Hockey League play Thursday night.

It's only the second loss this season for Aurora, the No. 2 ranked Jr. A team in Canada.

Gomes split the Tigers defence on a rush then took a return feed from Corey Trivino and flipped the puck to the top corner of the Tiger cage.

"That was a huge win," said Gomes, a second-year defenceman. "It was a playoff-like atmosphere out there. You could feel the energy from the guys after that one."

Mark Sullivan and Ben Morse scored to give the Spirit leads of 1-0 and 2-1.

Aurora's Andrew Favot tied the score at 2-2 with less than five minutes to play, setting up Gomes' heroics.

MYLES GOMES: Spirit defenceman scored winning goal with nine seconds left in regulation to upend Aurora Tigers.

The Spirit hosts Pickering, the only other team to defeat Aurora this season, tonight at 7:30 p.m.

Spirit netminder Trevor O'Neill, a Keswick resident, was superb, especially stopping a penalty shot granted to Favot.

At Newmarket (6-19-0-0), the hometown Hurricanes fell 4-1 to the Collingwood Blues.

Aurora remains in first place in the North Conference, 17 points up on Collingwood (15-12-3-1). Stouffville trails Collingwood by one point and has four games in hand.

The Spirit hosts the Pickering Panthers tonight at 7:30 p.m. at the arena. Stouffville minor hockey players wearing team jerseys will be admitted free.
