Bannon invited to Parkview opening, too

In Jim Thomas' column of Nov. 30, Councilor Phil Bannon should have been included in the list of politicians invited to the Parkview Home ribbon-cutting and official opening.

The Sun-Tribune regrets the error.

Students produce own show

The senior art students from Stouffville District Secondary School haven't just created work for their exhibition, Images 2006: Becoming, they are running the show.

The exhibition opens Thursday at 7 p.m. at the Latham Gallery and continues until Jan. 6.

Under the guidance of teacher Catherine Chartrand and gallery curator Ola Wlusek, students learned how a gallery decides on exhibitions, how works are selected and what's involved in promoting a show.

The students have worked since September to create paintings, drawings and sculptures.

Gallery hours are Tuesday to Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The gallery for Christmas closes Dec. 23 at noon.

It re-opens Dec. 28 and Dec. 29. The gallery closes Dec. 30. Regular hours resume Jan. 2.

The exhibition is sponsored by Giles Chevrolet, the Mayor's Foundation, and Button, Armstrong & Ness. Awards have been donated by the Stouffville Lions Club.

The gallery is at 6240 Main St. Call 905-640-8954 for more information.
