

Sheffield second at national judo tourney

Five students representing Stouffville's Sheffield Judo Club earned top 10 placings at the Hatashita International Judo Challenge in Mississauga.

Tressa Sheffield led the contingent with a second-place effort in the 41-kilogram juvenile girls division.

Finishing fifth were Jill Pirrie in the +78kg. senior women's and Taylor Strait, -73kg. juvenile boys.

Lea Sheffield was seventh in the -48kg. juvenile girls and Clint Moxley seventh +100kg. senior men.

More than 700 competitors from across Canada took part.

SPORTS DIGEST

Clippers thump Orillia

The Stouffville peewee AE Clippers pulled off a much needed minor hockey win Sunday in resounding fashion, 10-2, over the Orillia Bulldogs.

Hayden Burton led the onslaught with two goals and two assists while Chris Matsoukas added two goals and a helper. Other contributors included: Taylor Nihda and Daniel Szabo with one goal, two assists; Caleb Winters two goals; Andrew Baggs and Mike Nauta one goal, one assist. Goalkeeper Alex Manuel faced 19 shots.

Three on all-star squad

Three Stouffville residents who attend Brother Andre Catholic High School in Markham were named to York Region Athletic Association senior football all-star team.

Offensive linemen John Felix and Damien Kudelski and defensive back Mitchell Raithby were chosen to the first team.
