Spirit rings in '07 with pair of wins

There was no holiday hangover in Stouffville Spiritland.

The Provincial Jr. A Hockey League team opened 2007 with wins over the Durham Fury, 6-3, Tuesday and Huntsville Muskoka Otters, 6-4, Thursday.

The Spirit (20-14-2-2) jumped over the Collingwood Blues (18-14-4-3) by one point into second place in the North Conference, going into action last night.

The victories snapped a six-game winless streak before Christmas.

"We need to have a good month," said Mark Sullivan who scored the first and last goals in Thursday's win at home.

"We've got to get rolling into the playoffs, (in February) and there are still teams that can catch us."

Sullivan's first goal, 1:16 into the first, was highlight reel material, as he deked the defenceman and rifled the puck home. His last was an empty netter.

Corey Trivino, Brad Knapp and Myles Gomes had a goal and an assist each. Ryan Oliver scored the other goal on some pretty stickhandling in close.

Trevor O'Neill earned the win against a Huntsville team that refused to quit. Huntsville was outshot 40-32.

Sullivan and Trivino shared Farmer Jack's player of the game honours.

At Oshawa, the Spirit scored five straight goals in the first period to bury the Fury.

Randy Johnston and James McIntosh had two-goal games. Johnston, who was sorely missed during the pre-Christmas tailspin, returned from sick bay.

'We've got to get rolling into the playoffs, and there are still teams that can catch us.'

Ben Morse had a goal and an assist and Oliver, a Durham resident, the other goal. The Spirit outshot the Fury, formerly the Oshawa Legionaires, 38-19. O'Neill picked up the win.

The Spirit, which played at Pickering last night, hosts the Seguin Bruins Thursday. Spirit games are broadcast at whistleradio.com
