

Wheels In Motion money at work at park, arena

A platform at the Stouffville Arena and accessible tables in Memorial Park are being supported with funds raised at the fourth annual Rick Hansen Wheels In Motion Event, presented by Scotiabank.

And plans are in motion for the fifth annual event. Brenda Lobraico and Marty Bartley led a team of Stouffville volunteers to help raise more than $13,449 last year. They're also organizing the 2007 event.

Held each June in communities across Canada, the event sees thousands of people wheel, walk or run to raise funds that help improve the quality of life of people with spinal cord injury and for research leading to a cure.

Construction of a wheelchair accessible viewing platform at the arena and the installation of three accessible picnic tables in the park were made possible through the event.

"We're extremely grateful to the volunteers who continue to help make this annual event a success. For more than 20 years my dream has been to make communities accessible and inclusive, for people living with spinal cord injury and to someday find a cure. The generous contributions of Canadians has brought that dream one step closer to being a reality," said Rick Hansen, CEO and president of his foundation.

This year marks the 20th anniversary of the of the Man In Motion World Tour - and more than 20 years of dreams in motion. Twenty years ago, Rick Hansen wheeled around the world, fueled by the dream of a fully accessible and inclusive society and a cure for spinal cord injury.

The tour spanned more than 40,000 km through 34 countries, took more than two years to complete and raised $26 million for spinal cord injury.

The fifth annual event will be held in communities across Canada on June 10. To get involved, go to rickhansen.com or call 1-866-60-WHEEL (1-866-609-4335).
