More stores at complex this fall

BY HANNELORE VOLPE
Staff Writer

You may already have seen the signs for more new stores at the Wal-Mart regional shopping centre on Hwy. 48.

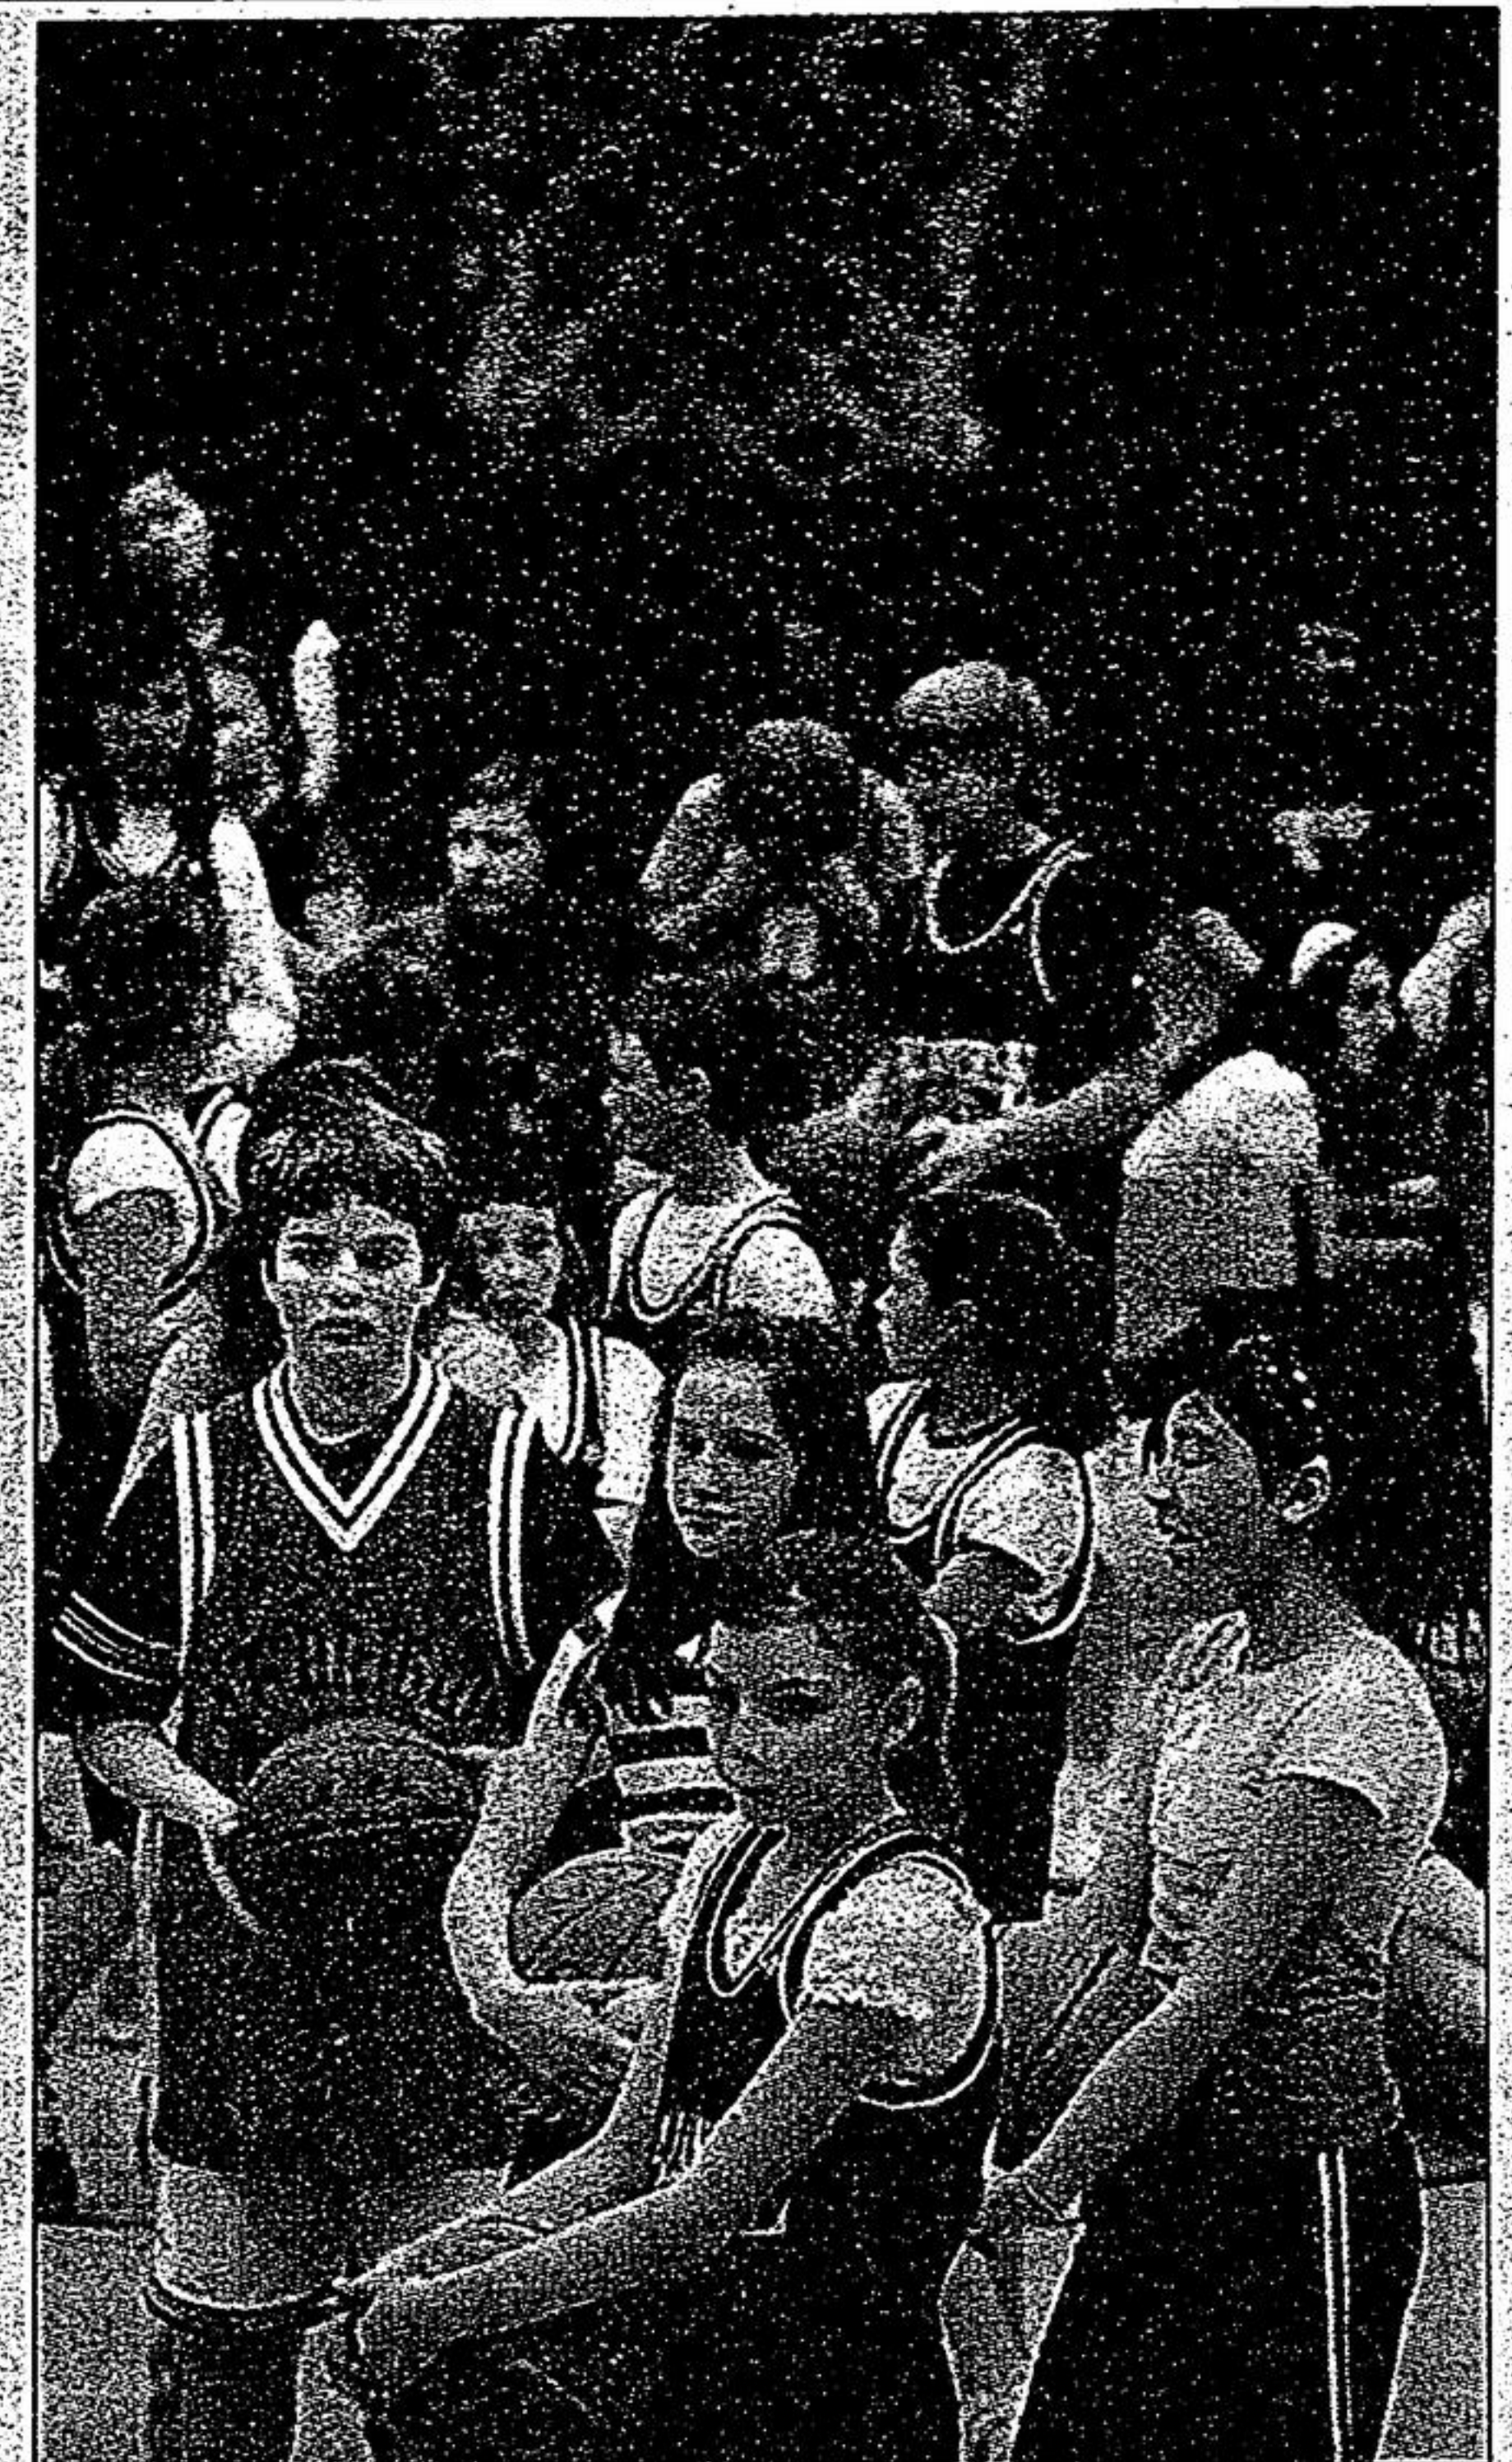

It seems the stores may not be far behind.

SmartCentres, the developer of the power centre south of Main Street, is anticipating La Senza, Boston Pizza, Subway and Dollarama will open their doors sometime this fall.

Around the same time, Canadian Tire will likely move from its Main Street location to a 72,000-square-foot building it will share with Mark's Work Wearhouse in the mall.

Boston Pizza should cover 6,300 square feet, La Senza will take in about 5,100 and Dollarama will be about 10,000.

There's no definite date for the opening of Hoover Park Drive to Hwy. 48, Mayor Wayne Emmerson said, but he would like to see the street ready for traffic around the end of February.

Sarah McGilvray is one cool customer when she's at the free throw line.

The Stouffville resident and Orchard Park Public School student topped all comers in her age group category at the Knights of Columbus district free throw championships Thursday at Brother Andre Catholic High School in Markham.

Competing in the 10-year-old girls division, Sarah sank 18 of 25 tosses to win the division and advance to the regional championships Feb. 24 in Oshawa.

Champions of six councils were represented in this competition.

As the lone Stouffville representative to qualify for the regionals, Sarah earned a berth in the district championships after winning her age group title in Wednesday's area finals at St. Mark Catholic School.

More than 1,100 students from six elementary schools in Whitchurch Stouffville competed at this event.

During the competition each participant took 15 consecutive free throws. The individual who sank the highest number of baskets won. Ties were broken with a five-throw shootout.

The championship is sponsored annually with winners progressing through school, council, district and regional competitions.

In Ontario, all girls and boys nine to 14 years of age are eligible to compete. Provincial champions are announced based on scores from the district level competitions. Last year, more than 179,000 students participated in more than 3,000 competitions across North America.

Other entrants who won their division title at the Stouffville competition included:
Level: 9 boys: Liam McMahon, St. Brigid Catholic School; 9 girls: Natalie Crouse, Whitchurch Highlands Public School;
10 boys: Shane Loutan, Orchard Park Public School;
11 boys: Mac Colasimone, Ballantrae Public School; 11 girls: Shamae Lingham, St. Mark Catholic School;
12 boys: Marco Mastrangelo, St. Mark Catholic School; 12 girls: Samantha Keen, St. Mark Catholic School;
13 boys: Adam McGilvray, Orchard Park Public School; 13 girls: Jennifer Mason, St. Brigid Catholic School;
14 boys: Avery Elson, Ballantrae Public School.
