Juveniles take two, resume OMHA play Friday

Jimiel Selmanovski scored two goals and added an assist to ignite the Stouffville juvenile Clippers to a 4-1 win over visiting Innisfil in Ontario Minor Hockey Association preliminary playdown action Sunday.

Gabe Barnett and Nick Stratas added single tallies for the Clippers. Len Spiteri and Kurt Brillinger each had one assist. Playing host to East Gwillimbury Friday, Luke Mabley delivered two goals to propel the Clippers to a 4-1 win.

Barnett had a goal and assist and Brillinger added an empty net marker. Kyle Cussion, Spiteri and Nathan James each had one assist.

Shawn Gibson and Adam Davis handled goaltending. The Clippers resume playdown action Friday when they host East Gwillimbury at 9 p.m. and then go to Sharon Sunday for the return match at 7 p.m.

Minor bantams in third round of OMHAs

The Stouffville minor bantam Clippers made quick work of Bradford in the second round of the Ontario Minor Hockey Association playoffs, winning the best-of-five series in three straight.

In the series opener, Josh Machesney scored a goal and collected an assist while Matthew Miniaci and Connor Cadaret each scored once to propel the Clippers to a 3-1 win.

David Beloff was credited with two helpers while Steven Tait, Connor Cadaret and Robbie Acton each had one. Gabe Grunwald played a steady game in goal.

Buoyed by a hat trick from Taylor Clifford, which included two shorthanded tallies, the Clippers took a stranglehold in the series by winning the second game 5-4.

Daniel Perry and Brett Hembruff each added one goal. Acton earned three assists while Tait had two and Joseph Palladini one. Kyle Pontone handled net-minding duties.

In the series finale, Machesney had a goal and an assist while Palladino, Tait and Beloff each scored once to ignite the Clippers to a 4-2 win. Curtis Crago earned two assists while Chris Smith had one. Grunwald was the winning goalkeeper.

The Clippers are facing Innisfil in the third round. The best-of-five series was to open yesterday in Stouffville.

The series resumes Saturday at the Stouffville Arena at 4:30 p.m. and Sunday in Innisfil at 6:30 p.m. A fourth game, if necessary, would be played Feb. 13 in Innisfil at 8:30 p.m. A fifth game would go at the Stouffville Feb. 14 at 7:30 p.m.

Bantam girls to Ottawa tourney

The Markham Stouffville bantam BB Stars took the good with the bad in two North West Girls Hockey League contests.

Battling Whitby for playoff positioning, the Stars lost 2-1.

Emily Anderson scored the game's first goal to stake the Stars to a 1-0 lead before Whitby rallied with two unanswered markers to ice the contest.

Playing at the new Oshawa GM Centre Sunday, the Stars rebounded with a 4-2 win over the host club.

Brittany Williams, Lisa King, Taryn Deasley and Stephanie Flaifel each scored once. Rochhina Burdo collected two assists while Anderson, Taylor Hunt and Williams each had one.

The Stars are scheduled to be in Ottawa this weekend for a tournament.
