Spirit won't bite on 'goon stuff'

Don't expect the Stouffville Spirit to put on a revival of the Broad Street Bul- lies at the Stouffville Arena tomorrow.

The defending North and North/West champion Spirit won 4-1 over the Cobourg Cougars Thursday in Game 1 of their Provincial Jr. A Hockey League open- ing-round playoff series in Stouffville.

Game 2 goes Sunday at 3:30 p.m.

Rough play by the Cougars, includ- ing the running of Spirit goalie Trevor O'Neill and a last-minute scuffle that forced referee Michael Marley to run the clock off, didn't impress the Spirit.

"We have to stay disciplined and out of the box," said defenceman Trevor Smith, who scored and wore the new Spirit MVP hard hat in the post-game as player of the game. "We don't have to get into their goon stuff."

Cobourg (15-29-4-1) finished ninth in the East Conference, while the Spirit (28-16-3-2) was second in the North.

The Spirit trailed 1-0 after the first period, despite outshooting the Cougars 19-10. But a three-goal Spirit second period, including a pair just 1:27 apart in the first 2:49, sealed the win.

Ryan Oliver, Mike Foy and Mark Sul- livan had the other goals. James McIn- tosh set up Sullivan on a beautiful goal- mouth feed, moments after having an apparent goal of his own waved off. Cobourg was outshot 45-34.

Games 3 goes Monday and the fourth game Wednesday, both in Cobourg.
