Attention high school students:

Enter our Short Story Contest

and be eligible to win valuable prizes

Starting in early February, at participating high schools, you can enter your story in our region-wide Short Story Contest.

- Entry forms and contest details will be available through your English department or can be downloaded from YorkRegion.com in our Pen & Pixel section
- Stories can be entered until March 20, 2007
- Each participating high school will select their top three stories and send them to YorkRegion.com to be judged region-wide and to be published online.
- The three top stories overall will win major prizes
- Three more will be selected for 'honourable mention'

Stories must be written on a computer or typewriter, be double-spaced and no longer than 1,500 words. If you submit hardcopy, please include a digital file as well. For advice on writing short stories and to see examples from other local writers, go to YorkRegion.com and click on Pen & Pixel: www.yorkregion.com/yr/yr4/PenPixel/
