Juveniles hope to make point Friday

The Stouffville Juvenile Clippers are a win or a tie from returning to the Ontario Minor Hockey Association A championship final.

Not bad, considering they barely had enough bodies to ice a team this season.

The Clippers, 2005 OMHAA champions, won twice and tied once with Quinte West in their semifinal last weekend. They lead the first-to-six-points series 5-1.

The fourth game is in Stouffville Friday at 8:40 p.m.

Jon Wonch and Josh Spang scored to lead the Clippers to a 2-0 win in Stouffville Friday. Luke Mabley assisted on both goals, with Kyle Cussion and Nick Stratas adding one each.

MINOR HOCKEY

One night later in Trenton, it was the same result: 2-0 for Stouffville.

Landon Wideman and Mabley scored on assists from Spang, Cussion, Jon Wonch and Stephen Brown.

Game 3 in Trenton Sunday ended 2-2. Offence came from Wonch, assisted by Len Spiteri and Brown, and Gabe Barnett, from Josh Spang.

Goaltenders Shawn Gibson and Adam Davis played well sharing duties.

Minor atom AEs ousted in game 5

It went the full five games, but it was the Stouffville minor atom AE Clippers who were eliminated from a minor hockey playoff series with the Georgina Blaze last weekend.

Georgina won the deciding game 4-2 Sunday. Ryan Nelson and Nic Rabito scored for the Clippers.

The Clippers won 7-2 in Stouffville Saturday.

Nelson and Quintin Volpe had two-goal games. Other scorers were Josh Carlin, Liam Timewell and Braden Clarke. Matt McCune had two assists.

Goalie Trevor Beaudoin was solid all series long.

Winter awards keep coming for racer Vincec

On the heels of another podium performance on the Florida Winter Tour, Stouffville's Mike Vincec was selected by EkartingNews as the 2007 Rising Star in the publication's annual awards of excellence.

The awards were announced at the Kart Expo presented by Sodi Kart, an industry trade show and conference in Chicago.

The 15-year-old Cameron Motorsports driver begins the 2007 season with awards including the 2006 Snap-

On Stars Of Karting Rookie of the Year, the ASN Canada Canadian National Champion and dual champion in the regional Sunoco Ron Fellows Karting Championship.

He has started the season with three podium finishes in the Florida Winter Tour.

Vincec and his handlers hope the accolades translate into sponsorships.

Vincec will next be on track for the final round of winter tour March 17-18 at the Ocala Grand Prix where he and tuner Brian Bettencourt hope to wrap up the series championship.

"We had some disappointment in Saturday's race during the last round at Homestead," Vincec said.

"But a good run on Sunday has kept us in the hunt for the championship. Brian and I are pretty pumped and we are looking forward to a good run at Ocala."
