

Championship hockey players earn lifetime memory

STAFF PHOTOS/SJOERD WITTEVEEN

Stouffville District Secondary School's boys and girls hockey teams show off the spoils of victory after claiming provincial championships. "It's great not just for the teams, but for the community, as well," said Brian Shankman, co-head coach with Dan McConnachie for the Spartans girls team. "I went to the boys final Saturday and a lot of the girls were there, too, in the stands to help cheer them on."

worked hard. The word of both teams winning has been a buzz around the school.

"It's something the kids (on both teams) will remember the rest of their lives," he said.

"We're thrilled with the news," said Brian Shankman, co-head coach with Dan McConnachie for the Spartans girls team.

"It's great not just for the teams, but for the community, as well."

"I went to the boys final Saturday and a lot of the girls were there, too, in the stands to help cheer them on."

The notion of both clubs going all the way to Ontario titles was wishful thinking at best, Mr. Shankman acknowledged.

"It's nice to dream of this happening. But I think you're more concerned at the start with how your own team will do," he said.

While the Spartans became the first school to win the boys and girls ice hockey titles, other schools have accomplished the feat in other sports.

As an example, Mr. Sevor pointed out Scarborough's Francis Liebermann High won the provincial boys and girls volleyball titles in 2005-06.
