

HAIR-RAISING

Cristina Vecchiarelli, a Grade 2 student at St. Brigid Catholic Elementary School in Stouffville, had her hair cut by a stylist from Casa Massimo during a school assembly last week. It took her two years to grow the 14 inches. She donated her locks to Angel Hair for Kids through A Child's Voice Foundation. It provides wigs to children from financially challenged families who lose their hair because of alopecia, burns, cancer or radiation treatments.
