happy mother's day

A mother, in her heart and her mind!

This Sunday, May 13, is Mother's Day. Is it your first Mother's Day? Your forty-sixth Mother's Day? The age of your children does not matter: a mother is always a mother in her heart and her mind!

When a child is born, when a son suffers his first fall off a bicycle, when a teenager's behaviour is worrisome, when a little baby becomes a man, when a little girl becomes a woman... Each time, we ask: "Where is the instruction manual?" There is no instruction manual because being a mother happens in the heart and mind! A hint of intuition, a grain of experience, a pinch of humour, a clove of patience, and mix everything in a big bowl of love!

On Mother's Day, your children will say "thank you", "Happy Mother's Day", and "I love you". This goes straight to the heart! There is no instruction manual for little words of love either: they come from the heart and mind of our children.

On this beautiful Mother's Day, every mother in the world is being honoured! With all of our heart, we wish them....

Happy Mother's Day

Mothers – an eternal source of inspiration

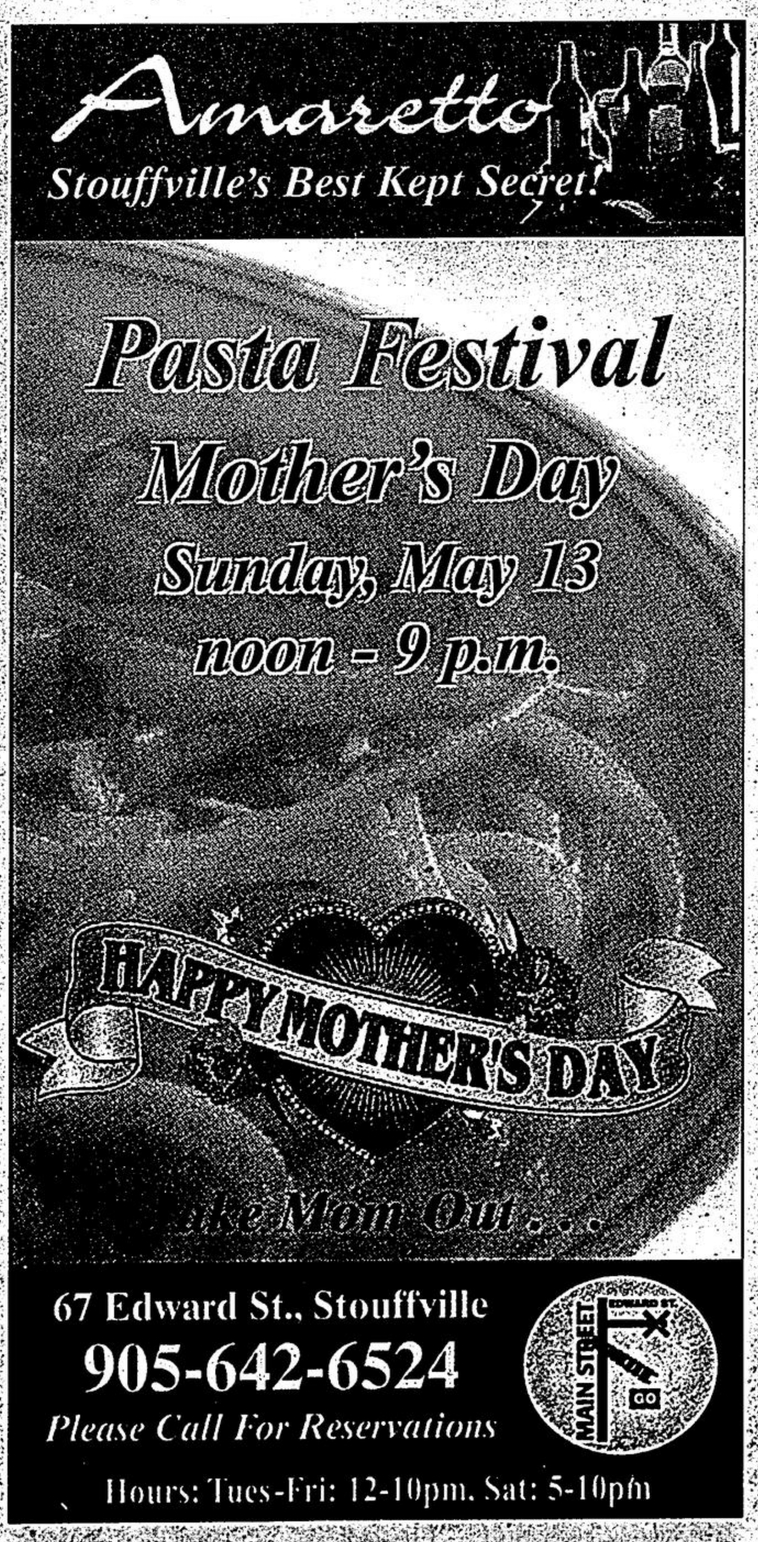
The celebration of Mother's Day is one of the most important Sundays in the month of May for children and their mothers. For an original gift, budding young authors can write a poem, a song, or even an announcement! Indeed, mothers have inspired and continue to inspire many lyricists and songwriters. From the lyrics that praise the tireless role of mothers, to the popular poems that emphasize the torments caused by their children, there is a full gamut of maternal emotions to be found in songs, writings, and stories. Now, it is your turn to be inspired by your mother.


Some educational Internet sites can help you develop your poems. With a little writing hocus-pocus, you can create the most imaginative poems. Take a pinch of adjectives, add a few superlatives, stick with rhymes, sprinkle with a few tender words, and, lastly, cover everything with a good dose of love and you will be the author of the most delicious poem! It is one of the nicest (and most affordable) gifts you can offer your mother this Mother's Day. Whether you choose to write a poem, a song, or a story, your mother is sure to fall under the charm of your declaration!
