

Tourney remembers ex-Argo Dick Aldridge

The third annual Dick Aldridge Charity Golf Classic comes to the Emerald Hills Golf Club July 24.

Mr. Aldridge is a former Toronto Argonaut and Alliston high school teacher, who died in 2004 after a short battle with pancreatic cancer.

This tourney is organized by his wife, Betty Aldridge, and their family to raise awareness about the disease.

The event has raised more than $100,000 and Mrs. Aldridge hopes this year's tournament will raise another $50,000 for pancreatic cancer research.

The Dick Aldridge Pancreatic Cancer Foundation now has charitable status.

Volunteers are welcome. The cost is $200 per player, which includes green and cart fees, conti-
