

Picture this at Latcham Gallery's next exhibition

An afternoon of art opens in Stouffville May 26 at the Latcham Gallery with Toronto photographic artist Lisa Klapstock's show, Depiction.

By taking multiple images of a space, such as a garden or house, and breaking them down into shallow focal layers from foreground to infinity, she shows the fragmented nature of human vision. The images are then composed digitally into a single picture.

The pictures slow down the eye's movements, making us conscious of the way we see.

The exhibition is part of the CONTACT Photography Festival and continues until July 7.

EUROPEAN WORK

The opening reception is May 26 from 1 to 4 p.m., with an artist talk at 2 p.m. The show is accompanied by an essay by gallery curator Ola Wlusek.

Ms Klapstock has participated in solo and group exhibitions across North America and Europe. Her work is in collections including the Art Gallery of Hamilton, Art Gallery of Windsor and Musée de la Photographie in Chaleroi (Belgium).

Since 2002, she has been artist-in-residence in Banff, Helsinki, Finland and Rotterdam, Holland. Her full-colour hardcover book LIMINAL was released in 2006.

The gallery is at 6240 Main St. in Stouffville and is open Tuesday to Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
