Theatre association's future, finances up in air

be used to further other arts and culture venues, it was agreed the decision should result from a general meeting set for Oct. 1 at 7:30 p.m. in the Davis Room of Stouffville United Church.

The future of the association will be settled at the same time.

"The funds are there to do with as we see fit," Mr. Duggan said. "The money was earned through the sweat of our brows."

Mr. Duggan listed several organizations that could use the money. The creation of an award or bursary was mentioned.

Mr. Button praised the efforts of Tom Graham, director of Whitchurch-Stouffville's leisure services department, describing him as "a man with a vision."

"For a decade, we gave it our best shot."

He suggested, however, "the town will never find a way to build the kind of theatre we envisioned."

"For a decade, we gave it our best shot," association member Terry Neprily said.
