CHERRIES are a good source of vitamin C and are higher in calcium, iron, magnesium, phosphorus and copper than many other fruits. The antioxidant benefits of cherries are a good choice for staving off the signs of aging & protect against disease too. DID YOU KNOW ... When your head is throbbing from daily stress, nosh on a few cherries! Experts at Michigan State University found that the antioxidants in cherries block inflammatory enzymes and help reduce pain. Eating 20 cherries may be just as effective as popping an aspirin!
