EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
CHARACTER FOUNDATION OF YORK REGION
Part-Time Contract

The Character-Foundation of York Region is a charitable organization that works to strengthen the character development of individuals and organizations in York Region through the promotion of core and universal ethical values as the basis for good character.

Reporting to the Board of Directors, you will be responsible for promoting and establishing participation and co-operative arrangements with volunteers, community groups, businesses and organizations in the Region. You will also conduct seminars, workshops and educational forums, as well as publicize the Foundation's activities and programs, while meeting their financial objectives.

Your post-secondary education in Social Services, Business Administration or a related field is enhanced by several years of progressively responsible managerial experience in a community environment. You also possess strong communication, organizational and management skills, including knowledge of the Foundation and its mission. In addition, you have an affinity for the 11 Character Community Attributes, and bring sound ethical values to the position. A valid Ontario Class "G" driver's licence and a reliable vehicle for business use are required. Salary is commensurate with experience and qualifications.

To learn more about this exciting position, please visit www.charactercommunity.com. To apply, please e-mail your resume to careers@york.ca by June 22, 2007. We thank all candidates for their interest, however, only those selected for an interview will be considered.

ONE EARTH, one chance

Turtle Island Recycling, one of the largest recycling and waste management companies in Canada, embraces the concept of sustainability and is committed to implementing innovative methods to divert waste from landfill sites. We are continually creating new ways to recycle while conserving the natural resources for future generations. Join us as...

Route Supervisor - Municipal

As the first-line supervisor, you will ensure the productivity of the collection crews, direct the activities of 15 drivers and helpers, and provide safe, effective and courteous waste collection service to customers. Your 2 years' route supervisory experience, preferably in waste management, is combined with a valid DZ licence and a clean abstract. Knowledge of York Region and OSHA certification would be considered assets. This role requires starting work at 5:30 a.m.

We offer good pay, benefits and a safe and friendly workplace where employees are really made to feel like they are part of the team. Please apply, to: Fax: 416-406-2044 e-mail: derek@turtleislandrecycling.com
