Park plans, bed and breakfast at council Tuesday

BY HANNELORE VOLPE
Staff Writer

An open house on the Memorial/Bethesda Park master plans is being held Tuesday from 5:45 to 6:45 p.m. at the town offices, 37 Sandiford Rd. in Stouffville.

You can hear more about the park plans at 8 p.m. during a special council meeting. An hour before, council will discuss new regulations governing bed and breakfast establishments.

Before that, at 3 p.m., politicians deliberate on whether to approve construction of Canadian Tire and Mark's Work Warehouse stores at the Wal-Mart shopping centre on Hwy. 48 south of town.

For more information, call 905-640-1900.

Your own radio show?

If you have an idea for a radio show, Whistle Radio wants to hear from you.

The fledgling radio station received its licence in December to broadcast to Whitchurch-Stouffville on 102.7 FM.

It is holding an open audition for anyone who wants their own radio show.

The station is licenced as a non-profit, community operation with a mandate to reflect local talent.

Several time slots are available and it isn't necessary to have broadcasting experience.

You can pitch your idea in no more than 15 minutes or put together a tape or a CD outlining your idea.

The radio licence sets restrictions on the type of programming that can be carried and programming must have local content.

Find out more about producing a radio show by logging on to www.whistleradio.com/MakeYourPitch.html

Polo for heart

Watch polo and support the Heart and Stroke Foundation at the same time June 22, 23 and 24.

Gates open at 11 a.m. at the Gormley Polo Centre for the 28th annual Polo for Heart.

Some of the world's top polo players compete twice daily at 12:15 and 2 p.m.

Activities include face painting, caricature artists, a polo pony parade, hat and picnic contests, rum punch and divot stomping and a car parade.

Tickets are available online at www.polo4heart.org and at the gate. Cost is $15 for adults and free for kids 12 and younger.

The polo centre is on Leslie Street, south of Bloomington Road.

Call 416-432-9735 for more information.

Kids, books at library

Ancient civilizations are the focus of this year's summer reading program at the Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library.

Children and teenagers can join the reading program beginning July 3. It continues until Aug. 25.

Choose books and report what you've read to a staff member or volunteer and take part in activities.

Volunteers are needed for the program. You must be a mature 12 or older. Adults can volunteer, as well.

Volunteer forms are available at the library in the Lebovic Leisure Centre at 30 Burkholder Ave. in Stouffville.

Find out the reporting times, when you can talk about your book, by calling the library at 905-640-7323.

Learning Disabilities?

If you or your child suffers from LEARNING DISABILITIES then attending this free symposium may be the most important thing you do this year. You will discover the true cause of these conditions and natural solutions and options you can use right away to overcome them.

Many children and adults with ADD and Dyslexia have seen significant improvement without medication. Dr. Turner is an international speaker and lecturer who has been featured on the Dini Petty Show, National News, Canada AM, CFTO News, Marilyn Denis CITYLINE and Riley Live. He will present a free symposium on Thurs. June 21st at 7:30 pm at the Stouffville Health Centre, 6219 Main Street.
