

Pair of breast cancer events

You have two chances to fight cancer this Saturday.

Fundraisers for the Weekend to End Breast Cancer are being held Saturday at the Cedar Beach Park Pavilion at Musselman's Lake from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. The event is for Team Blessed Breasts and includes a dance to a DJ, licensed bar, silent auction and raffle. Suggested donation, $5 per person; $20 per family. Call 905-831-3969.

The second annual Make the Lion Roarrrrrrr Against Breast Cancer is presented by The Lion of Stouffville.

It supports the Royal Stable Personalities team entry.

The event runs from 3 to 10 p.m. at The Lion. There are two live auctions at 4 p.m. and 8 p.m., live entertainment from 3 p.m. by a variety of musicians and a number of draws.

All proceeds go to The 2007 Weekend to End Breast Cancer, Princess Margaret Hospital Foundation.

For more information or to volunteer for the event at The Lion of Stouffville, call Carin Bacher at 905-473-7014.

You can wheel or heel to fight colitis, Crohn's

The Markham-Stouffville Heel-n-Wheel-a-Thon for the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation starts at Toogood Pond Sunday at 9:30 a.m.

Mathew Himelson is the honorary chairperson of the event for the third year.

Mathew, who was diagnosed with ulcerative colitis at the age of five, will make a speech and cut the ribbon to start the event.

With the support of his family, friends and community, Mathew has raised close to $15,000 for the event over the past three years.

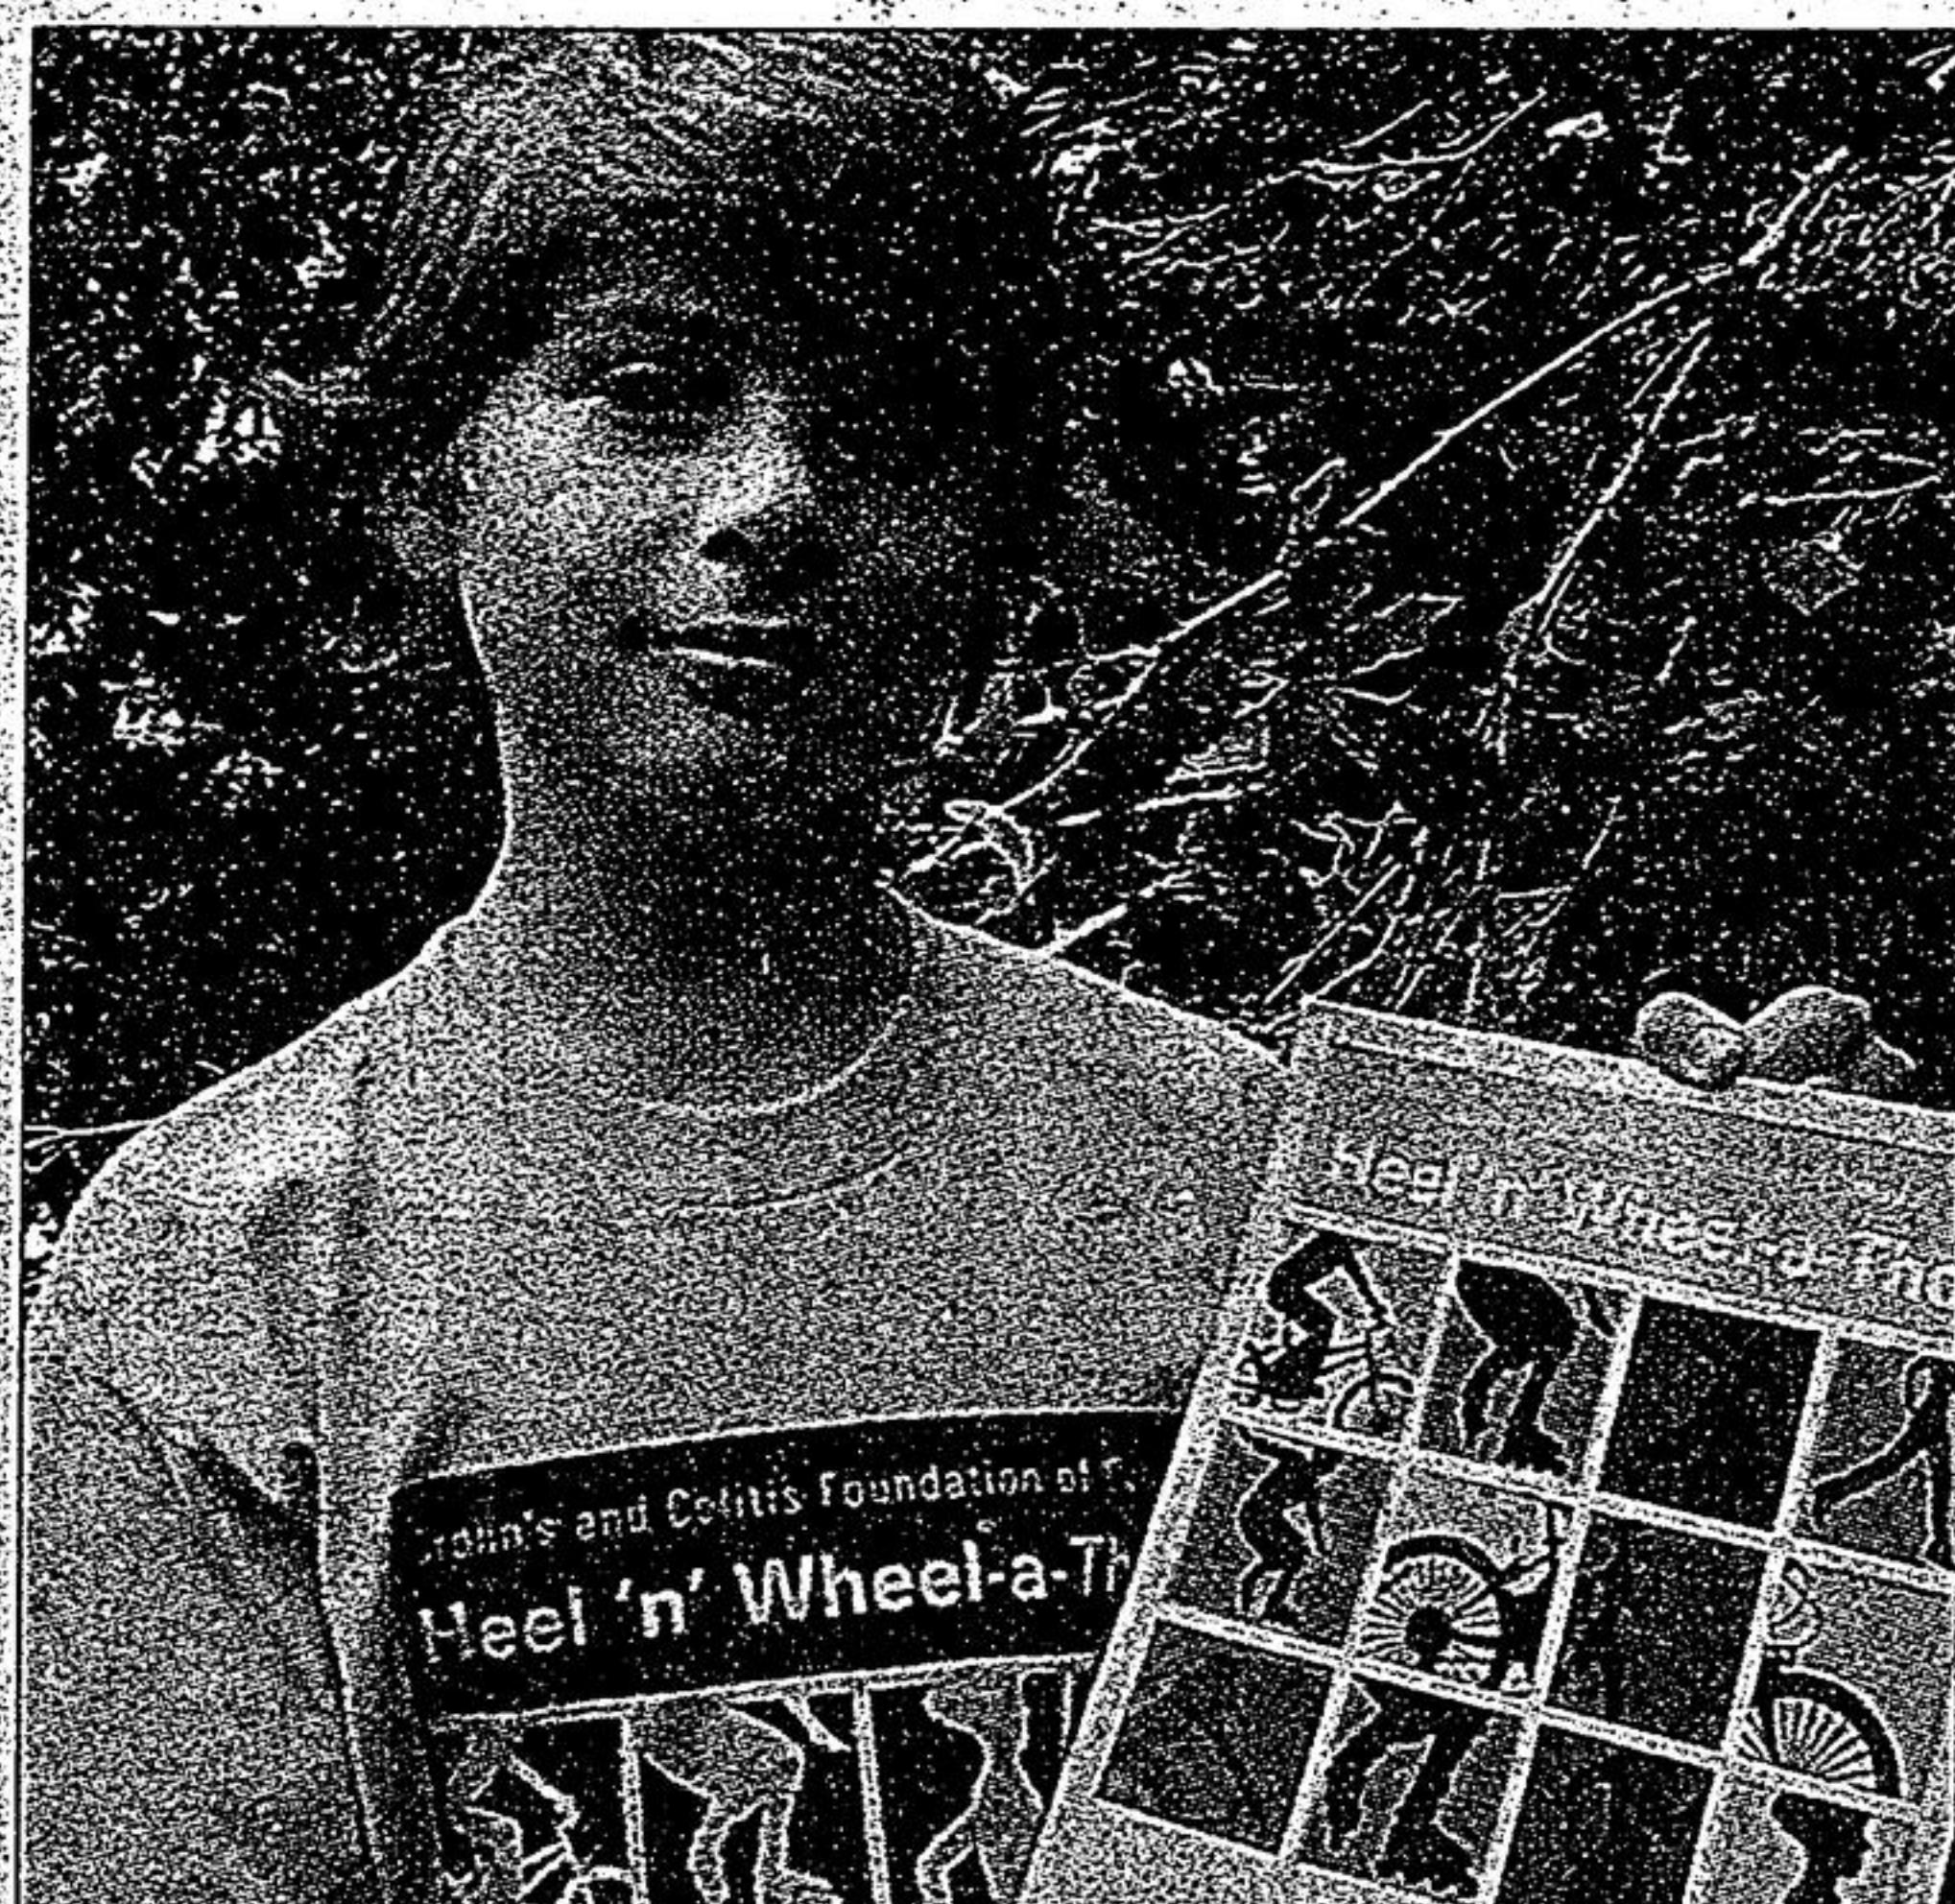

Mathew has been hospitalized many times due to flare-ups and extreme abdominal pain.

To keep his colitis under control, he has to take many medications and has been on steroids for more than three years.

There is no cure for Crohn's and colitis and this painful and life-altering disease affects more than 170,000 Canadians.

Everyone is welcome to take part in Sunday's five-kilometre walk through Unionville. For information, call 1-800-387-1479 or 416-920-5035 ext. 219.

Mathew is also the honorary spokesperson for the sixth annual Not Just Another Golf Tournament at Cedar Brae Golf and Country Club Aug. 23. Tickets are $225 and can be purchased by calling 416-920-5035 ext. 218 or e-mail markhamgolf@ccfc.ca.

Mathew Himelson will lead the way Sunday at Toogood Pond in Unionville during the Markham-Stouffville Heel-n-Wheel-a-thon to benefit Crohn's and Colitis Foundation.
