

Stringband co-founder plays park concert

BY HANNELORE VOLPE
Staff Writer

Marie Lynn Hammond, who with Bob Bossin founded the quintessential Canadian folk group Stringband, is performing at Music in the Park July 28.

She will be joined by other Whitchurch-Stouffville performers in the Lions picnic shelter in downtown Stouffville's Memorial Park from 2 to 4:40 p.m.

She may premiere a song based on the story behind the Foster Memorial in Uxbridge, a building inspired by the Taj Mahal, which Thomas Foster saw on a trip to India. The domed building was constructed in 1935-36.

The music begins in the park with seven-year-old Brielle Musto from Stouffville singing O Canada and other songs from 2 to 2:10 p.m.
