256 Deaths 256 Deaths

BERGSTROM, William James "Bill" Died in Toronto on July 26, 2007, the result of a sudden, tragic accident. Bill was born in Stratford, Ontario, on April 7, 1954, and in his adolescent years, was drawn to nursing. For Bill this choice was more than just a career, it was a calling. During high school, he volunteered and worked part time at what was then called the Whitby Psychiatric Hospital and after receiving his Registered Nursing degree from Durham College in 1976, began fulltime work there. Throughout his 25 years at WPH, Bill rose to higher and higher positions of nursing responsibility. Intelligent, erudite, witty, charismatic and full of life, he loved his work and the challenges and joys it offered. Most of all, he cherished the patients he cared for and he held them in the highest esteem. He was revered by his colleagues for his dedication and his intuitive, ethical professionalism. Throughout his nursing career he played a pivotal leadership role at all levels - as a Nurse Manager, a Clinical coordinator and eventually Project Manager, from 1990-1998, in the rebuilding of the Whitby Mental Health Centre. As a Project Manager, he was a zealous advocate for patient rights, and uncompromising in his insistence on the highest standards of care in the construction of the new facility. That the Centre stands today as a world-class facility is a reflection, in many ways, of the ground-breaking and innovative work Bill did with the architects and designer teams charged with bringing ideas and drawings to life, for real people to use. In 2001, Bill joined the staff of the Scarborough Grace Hospital Psychiatric Unit in Toronto, where he could once again get back to his truest love - hands-on nursing care. Bill was the sixth of seven children born to Elisabeth ("Betty B.") and Arnold Bergstrom, (both predeceased) of Whitby, Ontario. He is survived by his sister Ingrid Gadsden and brothers John, David, Tom, Ray and Don. He leaves behind sisters-in-law Lynn, Sharon, Barb and Jackie, as well as nieces and nephews Eric, Ian, Meghan, Adam, Misty, Eddie, Amelia, Dane, Brendan and Rachel Bergstrom. For Bill's family, his death has come as a tragic and devastating loss. He was the heart of our family, the clever, confident spirited one who inspired us with his courage, determination, sensitivity and unique panache. He made us laugh and we loved him so very much. We will be lost without him and he will live on in our hearts forever. Rest in peace dearest brother. Friends and family will be received at the McEACHNIE FUNERAL HOME, 28 Old Kingston Road, Pickering Village (Ajax) 905-428-8488 on Saturday, August 4th, 2007 from 1:2:30 pm. A memorial service to follow in the chapel at 2:30 p.m. In lieu of flowers, donations to a charity of your choice would be greatly appreciated. A Book of Condolence may be signed at www.mceachnie-funeral.ca

AARON ROBIN BROCK
Nov. 18, 1974 - Aug. 3, 2006

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am a thousand winds that blow
I am the diamond's glint on snow
I am the sunlight on ripening grain
I am the gentle autumn rains
... I do not sleep
A love for life
A life of Humour and Warmth
A life of Godness and Honour
A life of Gentleness and Generosity
A life of Passion and Courage
A life of Music and Love
Snatched away by ARVC
As long as we live
Aaron too shall live
For he is part of us
Deeply missed and forever loved by wife
Josephine, Mom, Dad, Jason, Karen,
Griffin, Turner, Nathan, and Ursula.

MCCULLOUGH, Roy In loving memory.
I cannot halt the hand of time,
Or live again the past.
Within our heart our memories that will forever last.
Jackie and family.
