

Youth with knife, dog arrested at high school

BY JOE FANTAUZZI
Staff Writer

A Whitchurch-Stouffville teenager was busted on the grounds of the local high school Friday, armed with a knife and a tale about a dog.

When York Regional Police caught word a 17-year-old, who is not a student at Stouffville District Secondary School, was on the grounds that afternoon, officers showed up and began questioning him.

"He had a dog with him and said he was returning a dog," Const. Laurie Perks said.

Police didn't buy it.

A further investigation yielded something more dangerous than a yarn about reuniting a canine with its owner: a stainless steel steak knife.

Police allege it was intended to be used as a weapon and the youth was collared at about 3:45 p.m.

He is charged with carrying a concealed weapon, breaching the terms of his release, an Education Act charge of being on school premises without authorization and mischief under $5,000.

The youth's name cannot be published due to the provisions of the Youth Criminal Justice Act.
