

New parks open Saturday

You can take part in celebrations to mark the official openings of two new neighbourhood parks in Stouffville Saturday.

The park on Byer's Pond Way, near Hoover Park Drive, in southeast Stouffville, hosts ceremonies from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Ceremonies at the other park, on Millard Street west of the Ninth Line in northwest Stouffville run from noon to 1 p.m. Both parks feature splash pads. Members of town council will attend.

Light refreshments will be available. Residents are encouraged to walk. Ceremonies will be held rain or shine.

Three types and sizes of parks have been established in Whitchurch-Stouffville: large community parks, mid-sized neighbourhood parks and small parkettes.

CONNECT TO TRAIL SYSTEMS

The neighbourhood park on Byer's Pond Way connects with the Stouffville Creek trail system and the neighbourhood park on Millard Street connects with the Little Rouge Creek trail system. Generally four to six acres and a five-minute walk from most homes, a neighbourhood park is intended to serve as a "meeting place".

Key features of a neighbourhood park include:

- Junior and intermediate play structures;
 - Splash pad;
 - Multi-purpose/basketball court;
 - Sitting areas and landscaping;
 - Informal play areas for pick-up soccer, baseball and Frisbee; and
 - Picnic tables, waste and recycling bins and bike racks.
- Other neighbourhood parks are planned for Whitchurch-Stouffville, said Cindy Elder of the leisure services department.
