Get outdoors with new club's activities

Love the outdoors? Then hiking enthusiast Chuck Suikki is looking for you. The Stouffville resident is starting an outdoor club in York Region where you can enjoy hikes, bicycle rides, canoe trips and other activities.

An organizing meeting is tentatively scheduled for the week of Oct. 22 to 28 for the club, to be called York Outdoors.

It will be non-profit with an organization as simple as possible, fielded by volunteers, Mr. Suikki said.

The club welcomes any body who has a favourite trail for bicycling, hiking or canoeing they would be interested in showing others on a trip.

The objective is to have a schedule of activities which you can elect to join.

For more information, call 905-642-4440 or go to yorkoutdoors.com

Timberland hits the trail

Trails were blazed and branches and underbrush were removed from trails by employees of Toronto-based Timberland. They inspected 30 kilometres of trails in the Hollidge Tract of the York Region Forest in Whitchurch-Stouffville.

A trail of more than 200 km extends across the Oak Ridges Moraine and is maintained by the Oak Ridges Trail Association.

The Serv-a-palooza, as it was called, took place last month.

Timberland is a manufacturer of outdoor environmentally oriented boots, shoes, clothes and gear.

Tired of the same old politics? Ready for something different?

On Election Day, Vote for DOUG RANSOM (INDEPENDENT)

THE THREE ISSUES NOT SPOKEN ABOUT IN THIS ELECTION

Issue No. 1
 The ascendancy of the bureaucracy in this province should be cause for alarm. Ontario is a representative democracy, not a figurehead democracy. It is the elected who represent the will of the people, not an appointed bureaucracy.
A government agenda driven by bureaucratic expedience does not serve your best interests

Issue No. 2
 The promotion of a culture of secrecy by government legislation, protocols, and rules raises important questions about government accountability. Closed and secretive governments are inconsistent with fundamental democratic principles.
A government in a free and democratic society must be open, transparent, and accountable

Issue No. 3
 The law-making apparatus of society is a sacred trust given to the government by the people. That trust is not honoured when laws are enacted solely to disenfranchise people or to create a skewed playing-field that favours government.
When the rights of one citizen are taken away, the rights of ALL citizens are taken away
