

Messiah won't collide with Grey Cup

So that music and football don't clash, Stouffville United Church is presenting its final concert of the season Nov. 18.

The original concert date would have coincided with the Grey Cup weekend.

Masterworks of Oakville Chorus and Orchestra, under the direction of Charles Demuyneck, is performing excerpts from G.F. Handel's Messiah.

The community-based group performs great works of the Western Classical tradition, particularly sacred works for choir and orchestra.

The chorus will also perform the Messiah Nov. 30 at Mary Mother of God Catholic Church in Oakville.

A free-will offering is being accepted for the Stouffville concert.

The church is at 34 Church St., just north of Main Street in downtown Stouffville, and is wheelchair accessible.

Call 905-640-1163 for more information on the concert. For more on the chorus, go to masterworksofoakville.ca/concerts
