

27 teams here at weekend tourney

The Stouffville Arena ice pads will be busy Friday through Sunday when the Whitchurch-Stouffville Minor Hockey Association will host its annual tournament for peewee A, bantam A, minor bantam AE and minor midget A teams.

Twenty-seven rep teams from across Ontario will take part in the event scheduled to commence Friday and conclude Sunday with the championship finals for each of the age groups starting at 12:55 p.m. The host Clippers will field teams in the peewee A, minor bantam AE and minor midget A divisions.

The Clippers minor bantam AEs will open the tournament at 10:10 a.m. against Pickering followed by the Clippers peewee A's against West Hill at 11:10 a.m. Both games are slated to be played on Pad A.

Atoms bear down in Michigan to win Ann Arbor tournament

Quintin Volpe's goal in the second overtime session propelled the Stouffville atom AE Clippers to a 2-1 win over the Geneva (Illinois) Cyclones in the squirt A division championship final of last weekend's Big Bear 9-11 Tournament in Ann Arbor, Mich.

Josh Carlin scored the first goal for the Clippers. Luke Burkholder collected two assists while Ryan Daniels and Aidan Clifford each had one.

The Clippers opened the tournament with a hard-fought 0-0 tie against the Cyclones. Trevor Beaudoin recorded the shutout for the Clippers.

Buoyed by goals from Burkholder and

HOCKEY BRIEFS

Braydon McNeil, the Clippers tamed the Cleveland Tigers 2-1.

Jake Espey, Nick Rabito, Volpe and Sean McSwiggan assisted.

The Clippers then had another tough game on their hands against the Northern Express of Illinois and overcame a 1-0 deficit to skate off with a 2-1 win and berth in the final. James Merksamer scored the game-winning marker with assists from Rabito and McSwiggan.

Clifford scored the first goal that enabled the Clippers to tie the game.

Volpe was also named the tournament's most valuable player.

Other players on the roster are forwards Jackson Newlands and Liam Timewell, defenceman Daniel Renzoni, Tritan Thompson and Tyler Moffat. The team was coached by Ross Newlands and assisted by Mike Renzoni and Ed Merksamer. Mark Beaudoin was trainer and Connie Rabito manager.

Bantams' unbeaten streak at 14 games in OMHA play

The Stouffville bantam Clippers continued their smooth sailing in Ontario Minor Hockey Association action last weekend after posting two victories to improve its league record to 12-0-2.

Playing host to Orillia Sunday, the Clippers had six different players get on the goal scoring sheet as they skated off with a 6-2 win.

Steven Tait, Brett Hembruff, Josh

Machesney, Curtis Crago, Taylor Clifford and Connor Cadaret scored.

Matthew Miniaci collected two assists while Kyle Sauro, Chris Smith, Clifford, Machesney, Robbie Acton and Joseph Palladino each had one.

Kyle Pontone handled netminding duties for the Clippers.

The victory by the Clippers came on the heels of a 13-0 victory they recorded Saturday in Markham.

Tait ignited the onslaught with three goals while Crago, Miniaci and Daniel Perry each had doubles. Acton, David Beloff, Clifford and Machesney each had one.

Beloff and Clifford also had three assists apiece while Acton had two. Singles were credited to Crago, Cadaret, Hembruff, Machesney, Adam McGilvray, Daniel McMahon and Miniaci.

Sal Rabito recorded the shutout.

The bantams are touring the Czech Republic next month.

Minor atom AEs earn tie, win

The minor atom AE Clippers skated off with three out of a possible four points in recent Ontario Minor Hockey Association action, battling visiting Richmond Hill Friday to a 0-0 tie and edging the same club in Richmond Hill 5-4 Sunday.

In Sunday's win, Marcus Ivanovski scored twice for the Clippers while singles came from Zachary Brewerton, Cole Gunathunge and Stone Macaulay. Macaulay collected two assists while Brewerton, Gunathunge, Hayden Messner and Cole Miller each had one.

Graham Smith posted the shutout for the Clippers in the tie.

Clippers honours for soccer star

Sam Batten, a member of the McMaster University Marauders women's soccer team and Stouffville District Secondary School graduate, was recently named to the Canadian Interuniversity Sport second team all-star squad.

Manning the striker position, the 19-year-old Stouffville resident is in her second year at the Hamilton school.

She scored eight goals in 16 games this season.

Majoring in kinesiology, Batten helped the Marauders record an 8-4-5 overall mark before they were eliminated in the Ontario University Athletics quarter-finals by Wilfrid Laurier University 1-0.
