New event has heart in downtown Stouffville

Christmas in the Heart of Stouffville takes over the downtown core Sunday.

Horse-drawn wagon rides, strolling Christmas carollers, decorated shops and visits with Santa are all part of the new event. A group of Stouffville merchants, calling themselves The Stouffville Clocktower Mews, is running it.

From noon to 4 p.m., there will be gift bags for visitors to Main Street, food sampling and hourly draws for prizes donated by participating merchants. The draws begin at 1 p.m.

"It is time to shop small-town Ontario," said Suze Joyce, owner of The Healing Force, who spearheaded the group.

The event takes place on Main Street from Edward Street to just east of Park Drive.
