

They made the news in 2007

DAVIS AHLOWALIA: Although the York Regional Police officer died in a traffic accident early in the year, his generosity inspired fellow officers and the community to carry on his work with the poor overseas.

BRAD MAY: Stouffville native, who played junior hockey in Markham, won the Stanley Cup with the Anaheim Ducks.

DOUG MEHARG: Markham businessman started program to teach young people about money.

MICHAEL CHAN: Markham-Unionville MPP won two elections in 2007 and served as Minister of Revenue and Minister of Immigration.

PHIL BANNON: Whitchurch-Stouffville deputy mayor sparked controversy when he secured the Conservative nomination for Oak Ridges-Markham.

EVA PACKYAM: Won the women's activist award at the South Asian Heritage Awards at the Markham Civic Centre.

JAMES YOUNG: East Gwillimbury mayor touched off firestorm after he and Councillor Marlene Johnson participated in the cutting of 83 trees outside the Sharon Temple.

SHANIA JOHNSTON: Although she died of neuroblastoma in July, her Sunflower of Hope campaign has raised more than $64,000 for research to fight the disease.

TOM BOLTON: Renowned astronomer spoke out against the University of Toronto's plans to sell the David Dunlap Observatory in Richmond Hill.

KAMILA MILLER: Woodbridge singer made it to the Top 10 in Canadian Idol.

ROBERT PLUNKETT: York Regional Police constable, who supported the Law Enforcement Torch Run and other community initiatives, was killed in the line of duty in Markham.

HANNAH GODEFA: Divine Mercy Catholic Elementary School student collected pencils for students in Ethiopia.

LORI ROBERTSON: Stouffville runner completed her first Boston Marathon.

NATALIE GEIGER: Stouffville runner was named Canadian junior track athlete of the year after setting three personal bests at the IAAF world competition last summer.

ALICIA ROSS: Murder victim got justice when her Thornhill neighbour was convicted.

JIM JONES: Markham regional councillor pleaded guilty to assault against a maid in his Niagara hotel room and was asked to resign by his fellow councillors.

NOOR DIN: Founder of Human Endeavour, a group that helps South Asian senior citizens across York Region.

JUSTINE CLEWORTH: Markham District High School Marauders' first female kicker joined the team in the York Region football final.

JIM FURYK: Winner of the Bell Canadian Open, hosted by Markham's Angus Glen Golf Club.

AUDREY GIBSON: Stouffville's Citizen of the Year worked with senior citizens and others in the community.

NANCY DI NINO: Model, dancer, personal trainer and corrections officer competed on CBC's Test the Nation and co-hosted webcast of the women's bodybuilding championships.

LINDA MARIANI: Murder victim. Finally, after a prolonged trial, former police officer Richard Wills was found guilty of first-degree murder.

BELINDA STRONACH: Newmarket-Aurora Liberal MP announced she would not seek re-election and revealed she was being treated for breast cancer.

GORDON WEEDEN: Chairperson of the Rouge Park Alliance worked to preserve natural areas in Markham's Rouge Valley.

Peace-Of-Mind Maintenance Package

- Up to 5 litres of 5W30 Mopar Oil Lube (where applicable)
- Rotation of 4 tires
- Provide written report of findings
- Mopar Oil Filter
- Top-up washer fluid
- Peace-Of-Mind Inspection

$54.95*

Environmental handling charge will apply.

FREE Shuttle Service

Buy 3 Tires
Get 4th Tire

FREE!

Must be dealer installed and excludes tire sizes 18" and over. Installation and balancing extra.

LONGMAN'S

MARKHAM DODGE CHRYSLER JEEP

5426 Hwy #7., East, Markham
(Hwy #7 and Laidlaw) www.markhamdodge.com
(905) 471-1500

*Additional charges may apply for diesel, V10s, HEMI, V8s, fluid disposal, semi-synthetic and synthetic motor oils. While supplies last. No purchase necessary.

