

Memorial Park place to be New Year's Eve

If you're looking for a family celebration on New Year's Eve, come to Memorial Park in the heart of Stouffville.

The annual Mayor's New Year's Eve celebrations, which usually draw several hundred residents, begin at 6:30 p.m. with fireworks lighting up the sky at 8:45 p.m. There will be hot chocolate games and activities for children presented by the Stouffville Lions Club in Latcham Hall. There will also be entertainment.

Weather permitting, there will be skating and tobogganing. Blair Purcell from Lionel's Pony Farm will provide horse-drawn sleigh rides.

Firefighters with the Whitchurch-Stouffville Fire and Emergency Services will be tending a large bonfire.

On New Year's Day, you can go to two levees.

The Stouffville Royal Canadian Legion on Ninth Line, north of Main Street, hosts its levee from 1 to 4 p.m. in the clubroom.

Mayor Wayne Emmerson is hosting a levee from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Stouffville Arena. The mayor and councillors will be there and there will be free skating.
