Spirit keeps it close in loss to Otters

BY MIKE HAYAKAWA
Staff Writer

Stouffville Spirit head coach Dave D'Amazio was happy with the way his charges performed Thursday when they hosted the North Conference-leading Huntsville Muskoka Otters.

The first-year head coach felt his players battled hard in a contest that had a playoff of atmosphere and was attended by 47 college and National Hockey League scouts.

But D'Amazio's appreciation stopped at the final score, because Stouffville's four-game winning streak ended with a 3-2 loss.

The loss dropped the Spirit's fifth-place record to 18-11-3, while the Otters improved to 30-4-0.

The Otters drew first blood with a goal in the opening frame that stood up entering the third period.

After a second goal just 70 seconds in the final frame, the Stouffville power-play clicked for goals by Jonathan Cristini and Darren Archibald.

I thought our kids played well and battled hard. It was nice to see we could compete against the first-place club. But we didn't get a lot of breaks.

But any momentum was lost just 44 seconds later when the Huntsville-Muskoka regained the lead for good on a goal by Josh Vatri.

Spirit goalie Trevor O'Neill played a sound game and stopped 24 of 27 shots. The Spirit had 32 shots.

"It was a tough game," D'Amazio said. "I thought our kids played well and battled hard."

"It was nice to see we could compete against the first-place club. But we didn't get a lot of breaks."

"I think our players have some burning sensation where we could have won the game. At some point we've got to get over the hump."

While happy with his club's power play against a team that leads the league in penalty killing, D'Amazio thought the difference was in even-strength play.

"We have to generate more offence when we're five on five," he said.

The Spirit concluded the 2007 segment of its Provincial Junior A schedule with games Friday in Huntsville against the Otters and Sunday in Couchiching.
