

2007 in TOONS

A look at news highlights through the pen of cartoonist Steve Nease

Stories that found their way into our editorial cartoons this year include (clockwise from above right) the Dalton McGuinty government's cultural slush fund scandal, the immense popularity of former American vice-president Al Gore and his anti global warming campaign, the cancellation of the much-hated GTA pooling policy that had York Region sending millions of dollars to Toronto, the death of York Regional Police Const. Rob Plunkett in the line of duty, Newmarket-Aurora MP Belinda Stronach's announcement she would not seek re-election and Prime Minister Stephen Harper's aggressive approach to minority government in the wake of polls for Opposition Liberal Leader Stéphane Dion.
