

YRT, GO offer free rides
New Year's Eve

York Region's transit providers are a hassle-free way to travel New Year's Eve.

YRT and GO Transit offer free service after 7 p.m. tomorrow to ensure everyone celebrating the new year makes it home safely.

The TTC, meanwhile, will offer free service on its routes after midnight.

Many TTC streetcar and subway routes will remain in operation until 3 a.m. and extra trips have been scheduled for the overnight Blue Night routes.

Check www.ttc.ca for more information.

York Region Transit and Viva will operate on a Sunday schedule Tuesday.

Local walkers help Canada earn world record

Canada is the unofficial winner in the World Record Walk, which included 34 Whitchurch-Stouffville participants in October.

The Canadian record now stands at 231,635 walkers.

The previous record was held by Western Australia, when 100,915 people walked one kilometre during a one-hour period last year.

Stouffville residents and town staff started from the Lebovic Leisure Centre at 12:30 p.m. Oct. 3 and walked a prescribed route.

The World Record Walk was organized by Green Communities Canada with support from the Ontario Ministry of Health Promotion.
