STIVER BROS.

Stouffville, Ont.

Office Phone 45

E. A. Grubin, R.O., Optometrist, will be at his office in Stouffville on Monday, Feb. 19th.

Mrs. Chas. Tindall visited her daughter, Mrs. Downer, in Toronto for a few days last week.

Mrs. C. Turner, Church St., returned home last week after enjoying some weeks in the southern States.

Mrs. Chas. Ward was removed to the Brierbush Hospital on Thursday suffering from bruises and abrasions which she sustained when she tumbled on the steps at her home, O'Brien Ave.

Many residents will recall Hugh Clark who farmed at one time on the present Albert Booth place to the south of the Stouffville School building. They will be interested to learn that last week Mr. Clark was elected president of the Toronto Chapter, Appraisers Institute of Canada for 1951. The institute's objectives are to provide members with opportunities for gaining higher professional standards in rural appraisal work, and through special courses, to make available American Rural Appraisers' certification.

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin N. Granger and Miss Margaret Harris of Whitby spent last weekend at the home of Miss Ethel Byam.

Last week's Tribune erroneously stated Mr. Edgar Nigh's home had been sold to Mrs. O. Baker. We regret the error, as it should have read Mrs. Ralph Baker.

That irregularity in the turning on of the local street lights last week was caused by the new photo-electric eye clock which has recently been installed to control the lights following the 60-cycle changeover. The new outfit is of American manufacture and there was difficulty in getting it properly adjusted to turn the lights on and off at the right time.

Jack Frost went to work on our town clock during the severe cold snap recently and will necessitate caretaker J. L. Smith making adjustments to get the big time-piece back in proper running order. The frost apparently got into the mechanism and speeded up the striking control until it compared with the fire-bell which changed rapidly here for many years until replaced by the electric siren.

Another real estate change was completed on Main St. this week with the sale of the Brown Betty Restaurant business to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gray of Brown's Corners. Mrs. Gray is an experienced cook in high-class restaurant trade. Mr. Cottam who has disposed of the place expects to move shortly from the apartment in the rear to a home which he owns in the east end of town, recently tenanted by Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Hall. The sale price was not disclosed.

That was a largely attended meeting of the Businessmen's Association on Friday evening when the problem of town parking came in for real discussion. A committee was named to wait on town council on March 1st concerning the problem, and to present some of the suggestions of the association to alleviate the problems. The suggestion which gained most support was the use of the Arena parking area, and to allow parking on one side only, on Main St. business section and Church St. One member even suggested that a shuttle conveyance service be provided from the park to the shopping area on open nights. The Association agreed to continue the regular open shopping nights, Tuesday and Saturday, commencing May 1st, until Sept. 30th.

"Neighbourhood News," heard over CFRB at 9.10 a.m., Monday through Friday, brings to its listeners, items of interest from the pages of Ontario weekly and daily newspapers, and very frequently from The Tribune. The announcer on the program is Eddie Luther, Eddie, a Westerner, served as a flying instructor with the R.C.A.F. during the last war and, after his discharge in 1945, joined the staff of Station CFRB. Most of you may remember Luther as the announcer who introduced the late Jim Hunter every morning and evening for several years. In addition to "Neighbourhood News," Ed does the 1.30 p.m. newscast over CFRB, is Master of Ceremonies on "Danforth Radio Folks" and announces the "Ted Lewis Show" just before Hockey Time every Saturday night.

His 80th Birthday
Eastend resident of Stouffville Mr. Newton Hill, reached his 80th birthday on Thursday of this week, Feb. 15th. Mr. Hill is at present confined to the Brierbush Hospital where he was removed from his home several months ago, in ill health. He had been residing alone in a new home which he built on Tenth St. north. Veteran stone mason and brick layer, many foundations and chimneys are doing service in this district that are a monument to his handicraft. Newt Hill located in Stouffville more than thirty years ago, occupying a house on the east side of the school building, just south of Nels. Byer's residence. Later he moved to the extreme east end of Main Street where he remained until his wife died. He was forced finally to give up his work because of the advancement of years.

Makes Good Point on Borrowing Paper
Under the heading, "Do You Think It is Fair?" The Tara Leader complains that it is "rather cheap" that for the small subscription price of $2.50 The Leader is read sometimes in as many as four homes and yet only one of these four is a subscriber. Pointing out that it knows of one case where the paper is read in at least two homes in the district and then sent on to the West, where it is read at least in two more homes. The Leader argues "the paper must be worth something or why take the trouble to send it so far and to so many people free?" The Leader editor claims that several people who make a habit of "borrowing the paper" could buy him out several times over. He claims that lack of financial support handicaps the publisher and works against the community as a whole.

C.G.I.T. week concluded with a rally in the Stouffville United Church last Sunday evening. Canadian Girls in Training came from Unionville, Markham, Goodwood and Siloam to join the Stouffville organization in a worship service. Miss Margaret Fockler of Markham was the guest speaker and her subject was "I Wish." A natural thing to us all and especially among girls. We wish to know so many things, to possess many things. Best of all to know Jesus and possess Him in our hearts. The Goodwood trio of Joan Turner, Helen Tindall and Ruth Jefferson sang two numbers. Shirley and Roberta Bone sang a duet. The Candlelighting Service was most impressive concluding with Taps and the Recessional. Three persons were very surprised during the evening. Miss Margaret Fockler and Miss Marion Warne who received beautiful roses as a token of the appreciation of the girls for many years of good leadership in girls' rallies and particularly as camp directors. Rev. Douglas Davis received a beautiful framed reproduction of "Sallman's-Head of Christ." This will be the C.G.I.T. girls special gift towards the minister's vestry.

In a quiet, pretty, double-ring ceremony at Knox Presbyterian Church manse, Rev. H. S. Rodney united in marriage Muriel Valerie Rawson, Reg. N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rawson, Port Stanley highway, and Allison John Dummer, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Dummer, 7 Scott Street, St. Thomas. The bride wore a white, strapless brocade satin gown with brief bolero, a matching satin headdress, edged in seed pearls holding the fingertip veil. She carried a shower bouquet of red roses and white poms. Miss Audrey Rawson was her sister's maid of honor, gowned in ice blue strapless brocade satin with insert of net, matching bolero and headdress. Her flowers, in a Colonial bouquet, were pink roses and snapdragons. William Dummer, brother of the groom, was groomsman.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Rawson, mother of the bride, wore powder blue crepe with navy accessories and corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Dummer wore wine crepe, navy blue accessories and corsage of Talisman roses. Serving at the reception were Mrs. Jessie Wright and Miss Ruth Killins.
For the wedding trip to Chicago the bride travelled in a navy blue crepe dress, wine and navy accessories with a corsage of Talisman roses pinned to her wine topcoat. The couple will reside at 1231 London Street, Windsor.

Frank "Massie" Mowder who has not been enjoying very good health for some time, has been quite ill at his home on Church St. with pleurisy.

Hockey fans, both those who have purchased reserved seats and those contemplating buying rush accommodation, should be at the arena early on Friday evening for the Owen Sound vs Clipper game. While on Tuesday, the reserved seat sale was practically completed, there will be eight hundred rush tickets sold the night of the game commencing at 7 o'clock. You are also reminded that Green gallery reserved tickets and all Red tickets east of the players' benches will be accepted at the eastend entrance the night of the game. United Church Minister Loses Mother in Old Country
Mrs. Emily Davis was born in Buckinghamshire, England, in 1858. While quite young she was engaged to Lady Dices as lady's companion and travelled to India. Here she met and married Richard Davis, an officer in the Loyal North Lancashire Regiment. Mr. Davis served in the Afghanistan campaign and afterwards was transferred to Jersey, Guernsey, Wales and then to Portsmouth. Here at the age of 39 he died. Mrs. Davis accepted the responsibility of dual parenthood for five sons and two girls, but never remarried. Her life was a succession of anxious days, for her family follow the tradition. One son served in the South African War. Four served in the First Great War. Three grandchildren served in the last war. One, George, was killed in England. Today the daughters remain unmarried. One son lives in South Africa where he has been in business since his war service there. Two sons are married and live near their mother. Cecil, the eldest, and Douglas, the youngest, live in Stouffville.

During the last war the home was in direct line for the air attacks over London and the one daughter who lived at home went daily to work, neither mother, nor daughter knowing what disaster might befall either before they came together for the evening meal. It was a happy family gathering when Mrs. Davis celebrated her 91st birthday with the addition of Rev. and Mrs. Douglas Davis home from Canada. As late as January 11 of this year she wrote to each of her sons here long descriptive letters of the Christmas activities over there. Her penmanship, composition and careful detail were remarkable. Up until two years ago, she looked after her own home and until the last week attended to her own personal needs. A wonderful mother, a staunch Anglican, a true Christian has passed to her eternal reward.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Baxter motored to Collingwood on Saturday night with the senior hockey club and remained during the week-end to visit with relatives there.

The Tribune was issued this week under serious handicap with two members of the composing-room staff, Wilbur Gower and Ken Jennings, both stricken with the flu.

The circulation of The Tribune passed the 2,900 mark for paid-in-advance subscribers in January of this year. This is a new all-time high for the local press. More than 3,000 copies are printed each week to handle the subscription list and counter sales.

"There have been a great many changes in Stouffville since I left twenty years ago, but I still enjoy reading The Tribune each week, especially the editorials. It is the only Canadian paper I read." So writes Mrs. W. B. Sanders from Hollywood, Cal., when enclosing her renewal for another year's subscription.
