IN MEMORIAM

SMITH—In loving memory of John S. Smith, who passed away March 30, 1950.
"Always in our thoughts."
Remembered by his wife Pearl, daughter Mary and son Stuart.

YAKE—In loving memory of my dear father, Harmon Yake, who passed away March 1, 1946, and my dear mother, Rachel Yake, who passed away March 30, 1942. Wonderful parents, mom and dad. Two that were better a girl never had.
Just in your judgment, always right, honest and liberal, ever upright. Loving and kind in all their ways. Oh how I miss those happy days. Deep trust in God that all was right. Their joy to make some other bright. Loved by your friends and all that you knew.
Dear mom and dad, that couple were you.
Always remembered by daughter Myrtle, Loss, and family.

THE GRAHAM PLOW

A Size for Every Tractor
Store moisture in your land and prevent the rains from running off by breaking up the hard pan formed at the bottom of normal plowing or discing. In plowing with a GRAHAM PLOW, the plow breaks through the hardpan, by means of chisel furrows 12 inches apart. The surface mulch is left as a protective cover on top of the ground. Moisture by-passes by means of chisel furrows through the top soil into the subsoil to be stored. See this revolutionary plow at the farm of
