STIVER BROS.

Stouffville, Ont. — Office Phone 45

On Monday night friends and neighbours made a surprise visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Rae on Clark St. in honour of their 25th wedding anniversary. The happy couple received many gifts and flowers from the some fifteen well wishers.

Weddings

FERRIE-APPLEBY
The United Church at Mt. Zion decorated with apple blossoms and spring flowers, was a beautiful setting for the marriage of Elizabeth (Betty) Appleby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rodd Appleby, of Myrtle Station, to James Ferrie, eldest son of Mrs. Ferrie and the late Alastair Ferrie of Toronto. Rev. Russell Monkman officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown with white chintilly lace bodice, a full net skirt gathered into scallops on the lace over white slipper satin. She wore a Juliet cap of lace over satin holding her finger tip French veil. Marjory Appleby, sister of the bride, was maid of honour and wore turquoise faille taffeta with a headdress of braided purple velvet and matching band at waist. The three bridesmaids, Mrs. Donovan Appleby, Dorothy Ferrie and Myrna Jones were similarly dressed and all carried nosegays of pink carnations and purple pansies. The groomsmen were Harry Hotchkiss and the ushers were Donovan Appleby, Douglas Ferrie and Alfred Pegg.

Mrs. Lloyd Pegg of Oshawa, was at the piano and accompanied by Mrs. Elmer Wilson, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because". At the reception which followed in the Sunday School auditorium, the bride's mother received in pale mauve sheer crepe with matching corsage of roses, the groom's mother assisted in pale blue crepe with corsage of red roses. The bride's travelling dress was of blue flowered triple sheer crepe with navy coat and natural coloured hat with navy accessories. After a short honeymoon they will reside at 48 Wolfrey Ave. in Toronto.

NIGH-SANDERSON

Victoria Square United Church was decorated with beautiful spring flowers for the wedding of Edna Winnifred Sanderson, daughter of Mrs. Sanderson and the late Clare Sanderson, who became the bride of William Grant Nigh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Nigh, Stouffville. Rev. A. Huston officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, Mr. Ernest Sanderson, wore a white slipper satin gown with bertha and lace yolk and long full train. A coronet of shirred satin seed pearls and lily of the valley held the tulle illusion French embroidered long veil. She carried a cascade of red roses and lily of the valley. The bride was attended by Miss Doreen Boyington and her sister, Marjorie Sanderson. Each wore long full gowns of mauve and Nile green taffeta, with braided bandeaux, flowers and rosettes, and carried cascades of mixed roses and carnations. Little Patty Valliere was flower girl and wore a lace trimmed yellow taffeta dress. She carried a nosegay of mixed flowers. Jonathan Nigh, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer. Larry Sanderson was best man. Paul Cummings was usher.

The bride's mother received in a navy nylon sheer gown, with a pink rose-bud corsage and pink accessories. The groom's mother assisted in a pearl crepe dress with a yellow rose-bud corsage and black accessories. The groom's mother rendered lovely selections on the organ during the ceremony. Mrs. Claude Brillinger was soloist. For travelling the bride chose a mauve dress, blush pink shortie coat with white accessories. After the honeymoon to points north and the States, the couple will reside at Victoria Square.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Magnus Mowat over the weekend were their son William Stuart Mowat and family of Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Peake and daughters of Campbellford, also Mr. and Mrs. Allan McConnochie and sons of town, Miss Joy Ellis and Mr. Ralph Stafford of Kimberley, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stuart of Powassan.

An explosion in a pump pit on the premises of Jas. Pidgeon, Musselman's Lake, did considerable damage to a garage building and car the other day. The pump and pit in which it is located for deep well pumping, are located in a garage building to the rear of the Pidgeon home, and it is believed that gas fumes from the well-pit and exploded when the pump started. The roof was blown from the building, but fortunately no one was injured in the blast.

Fete School Principal

Principal L. C. Murphy of Stouffville High School who is leaving the local staff this June, was honoured at the annual student picnic held at Shadow Lake on Friday of last week. Mr. Murphy was presented with a handsome wrist watch and an address of appreciation from the students. Lorne Rowdway made the presentation of the watch and Isobel Keffer read the following address:

"On behalf of the students I would like to extend to you our thanks for that which you have done to further our education. For the past fourteen years you have led this school through to victory and success, in music, sports and learning, and no matter what we could try to say, never could we put into words just how much we have appreciated your work here. As a small token of our gratitude, I would like to present you with this little gift, in order that you may have happy memories of us, every hour of the day. The Students of Stouffville High School" Miss P. Schofield who is leaving the staff after one year, was also honored with the presentation of a rhinestone necklace.

Stouffville Youth for Christ Girls' Choir sang in Runnymede Baptist Church, Toronto, on Sunday night. Mrs. Wm. Cake is choir leader.

The 2nd Annual North York Garden Party will be held on Saturday, June 23rd, at the Sharon Temple Grounds. Last year the proceeds were donated to the Manitoba Flood Relief Fund, and this year it has been agreed to donate the money to the York County Hospital Women's Aid, to be used for the purchase of some specific and much-needed, equipment for the hospital. Supper is to be served at five o'clock with a dance scheduled for 9 o'clock.

Special speaker at the May meeting of the Stouffville W.I. was Mrs. C. Hicks, president of East York District, who gave some of the high lights of the recent convener's conference on Citizenship and Historical Research held at Guelph. This conference was attended by representatives from every part of Ontario. Mrs. Ridout, retiring president, was presented with a crystal and silver bowl in appreciation of her three years of splendid service. The convener of ways and means for the past three years, Mrs. Sanderson, was also the recipient of a pottery hostess plate as a memento of her untiring effort in this office. A further pleasant surprise was the presentation of two dozen colorful cups and saucers to the Institute by two members. Readings of interest were given completing an interesting program.

Also their son Eugene, now living in Geraldton, visited his parents while here on business last week. Eugene, with his wife and family, has recently moved to Geraldton. He is working as an electrical engineer with the Dept. of Highways and expects to be in Geraldton for possibly a year. Eugene says The Tribune is a very welcome visitor, each week when you are so far away from home.

Little June Emmerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mel. Emmerson, Main St., Stouffville, was rushed to the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, on Sunday afternoon, where she was found to have suffered a skull fracture. The little girl had been playing on the verandah of the family home and tumbled off the railing, striking her head on the sidewalk. It was not thought at first that she had suffered any serious injury other than a bad bump above the eye. However, her parents became alarmed at her condition a short time after, and summoned Dr. S. S. Ball who ordered her removed to hospital.

Has Outgrown Trophy

The Jos. Clark Memorial Trophy which has graced a spot in the front office of The Tribune for nine of the eleven years in which it has been up for competition, was returned last week to Montreal where it will be presented to the winner of the best all-round newspaper in towns of 1500 population and under, at the annual sessions of the Ontario-Quebec Weekly Newspapers Association. The Tribune was first presented with the trophy in 1939, and again in 1950, winning all but twice of the intervening years. Stouffville's population now being close to the 1700 mark, the local weekly is no longer eligible for the award. The cup was given to the association by the Toronto Daily Star in memory of the late Jos. Clark, well-known columnist.
