WEDDINGS

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Orval Drewery, wore an ivory satin gown, the full skirt extending in a train. A matching headdress held her finger-tip veil and she wore the groom's gift, a three strand pearl necklace. She carried a cascade of cream roses and orange blossoms. She was attended by Mrs. Orpha Teasdale in rose taffeta with matching large picture hat, and Mrs. Helen Wapshott in lime green taffeta and matching large picture hat, each carrying nosegays of sweet peas. Mr. Barton Teasdale was best man and the ushers were Mr. Wm. Stephens and Mr. Joe Weissner.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a white gown of French chantilly lace and tulle. She wore a finger-tip veil held by a headdress of satin and seedpearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of red and white roses. Her only attendant was Mary Gledhill who was gowned in a floor-length dress of pale green lace, matching headdress and carried a bouquet of pink and yellow roses. Mr. James Sabiston was groomsmen while Clifford Labbet and Gordon Neal, brother of the bride, acted as ushers.

The reception was held in the Sunday School hall. Mrs. Neal received in navy blue marquisette with white accessories, the bridegroom's mother wore navy blue mesh with lace and blue accessories.

For a trip to the east coast the bride donned an oyster white linen dress with green accessories. Upon their return the couple will take up residence in Unionville.

BOSSERT-STICKLEY

Heise Hill Brethren in Christ Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, July 11th, when Dorothy Pearl Stickley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Stickley, became the bride of Paul James Bossert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bossert of Buffalo, N.Y. Standards of blue delphiniums, white gladioli and ferns formed the setting for the ceremony performed by Rev. Alvin Winger. The Henderson trio sang "We Come to Thee," "The Bridal Chorus" and "O Perfect Love."

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of white silk and she carried a bouquet of white carnations, red roses and myrtle. She was attended by Miss Mina Stickley as bridesmaid in pale blue silk and carried white and pink carnations and myrtle. Norman Trost was best man. Next week, The Tribune will publish a special edition for Musselman's Lake, included in the regular Wednesday night paper. The Musselman's Lake, edition of The Tribune, was an annual event some years ago, but was discontinued during the war, and is being issued this year for the first. Advertisers are given an excellent opportunity of placing their message before the lake folks who are Stouffville's biggest customers during an otherwise slack season. Copy for these ads. should be in this office not later than Saturday. Reserve space when our advertising salesman calls. Some fifteen hundred people will spend their holidays at the lake this year as permanent summer residents.

The complaints are still being heard on every hand concerning the dirty condition of our Main St. which at one time was a picture for neatness and cleanliness. More than one householder has complained bitterly to your writer over the dust and the apparent lack of attention by council to the matter of a more regular cleaning. From one end of town to the other the sides of the street present a picture of accumulated refuse, while from Church St. east on the north side, one would believe the pavement was being allowed to gradually return to a gravel top. Admittedly much of the gravel accumulation comes from passing trucks, but this certainly is no excuse for not cleaning the street. Added to this "dirty street" complaints come sidewalk weeds, but many of these could be corrected by a little energy on the part of residents themselves to tidy up the edges of their boulevards on the sidewalk side.

Mrs. Turner and Miss Nettie Rae, Church St., attended the Kennedy-Neal wedding at Whitby on Saturday.

Mrs. Archie Stewart of Main St. has just returned home from the West where she visited many friends and relatives in Manitoba. Mrs. Stewart visited with her 84-year-old mother, Mrs. Kelly, her brother, Mr. Robt. Stewart, and her three sisters. In commenting on the crops Mrs. Stewart says they are excellent in Central Manitoba, where the rainfall has been heavy but in the southern part rain is badly needed. Mrs. Stewart travelled by train and was greeted with nice weather on almost the entire trip. Her last journey West was made two years ago.

Born in Stouffville 71 Years Ago

An interesting visitor in Stouffville last week was Wilmot Lehman of North Bay. Mr. Lehman was born in the local east end 71 years ago, but has made his home in the northern municipality for the past fifty years. He was a son of Jos. Lehman, a millwright who may be recalled by some of our elder residents. In 1904 Wilmot Lehman married Lillian Widdfield and she passed away in February of this year. Mr. Lehman worked for a couple of years in The Tribune office then operated by H. W. Malloy's father, and later for the Stouffville Free Press. He recalls that Watson Adams and Walter Mertens were two of his fellow employees in those years. He apprenticed to Frank Rae in the tailoring trade for a year and operated several tailoring shops of his own. In 1909, Mr. Leman joined the C.P.R. and retired from their service in 1945. His daughter Jean who also resides in North Bay is at present holidaying in Florida, and she will rejoin her father in Toronto this week for the return trip home.

During the last week Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Scarth of Isabella, Man. and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Doran of Burtal, Man., were visitors in town at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Stewart. Mrs. Stewart was in the West when the visitors arrived. On Sunday Mrs. Harry Reid of Brandon, Man., sister of Mr. Archie Stewart, called in to see her brother while passing through town.
