

Richardson Masonic Lodge Honored For First Time

Richardson Masonic Lodge has been honored with the appointment of a District Deputy from its ranks for the first time in the ninety-one years of its existence.

Fish Company Buys Ratcliff Farm

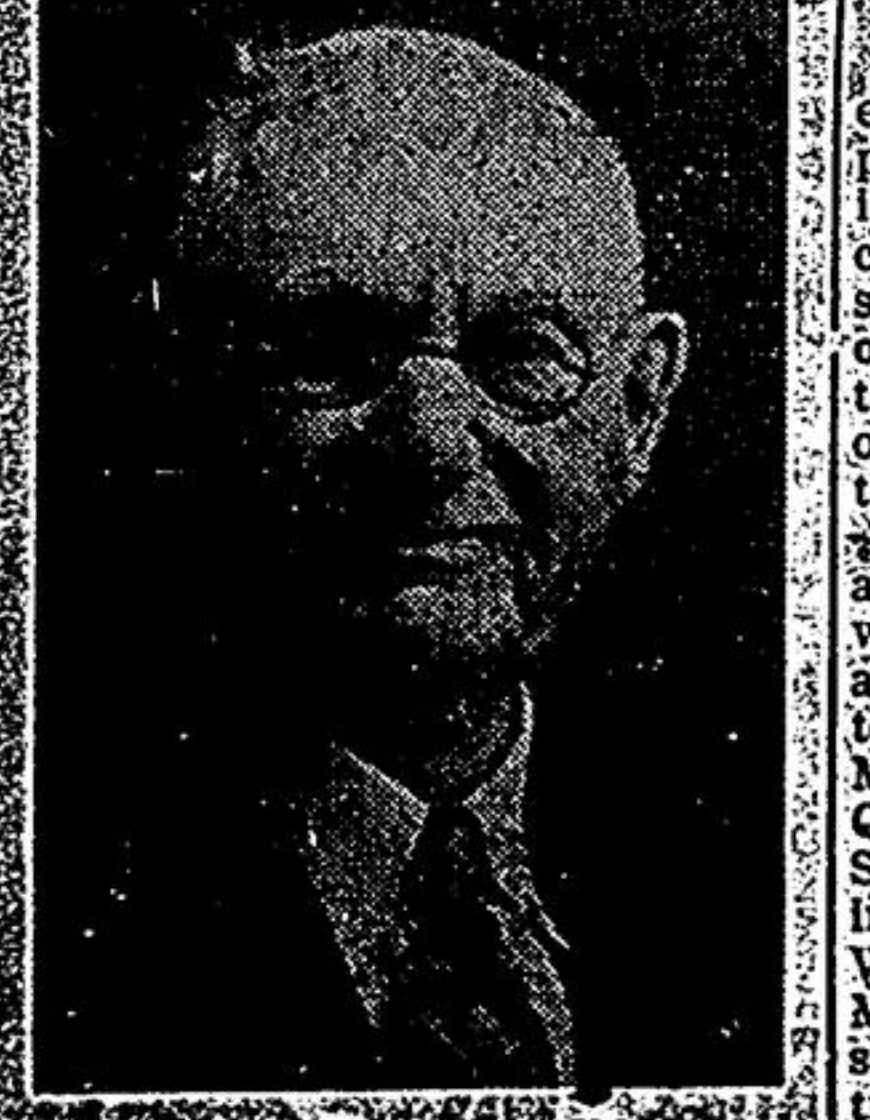

The sale has now been completed of the Gordon Ratcliff farm on the 8th con. of Whittechurch adjacent to the Stouffville water supply system.

Former Pastor Completes Forty-Six Years in Ministry

Rev. S. S. Shantz, former pastor in the United Missionary Church, Stouffville, and at Mt. Joy and Dickson's Hill, has completed forty-six years in the ministry.

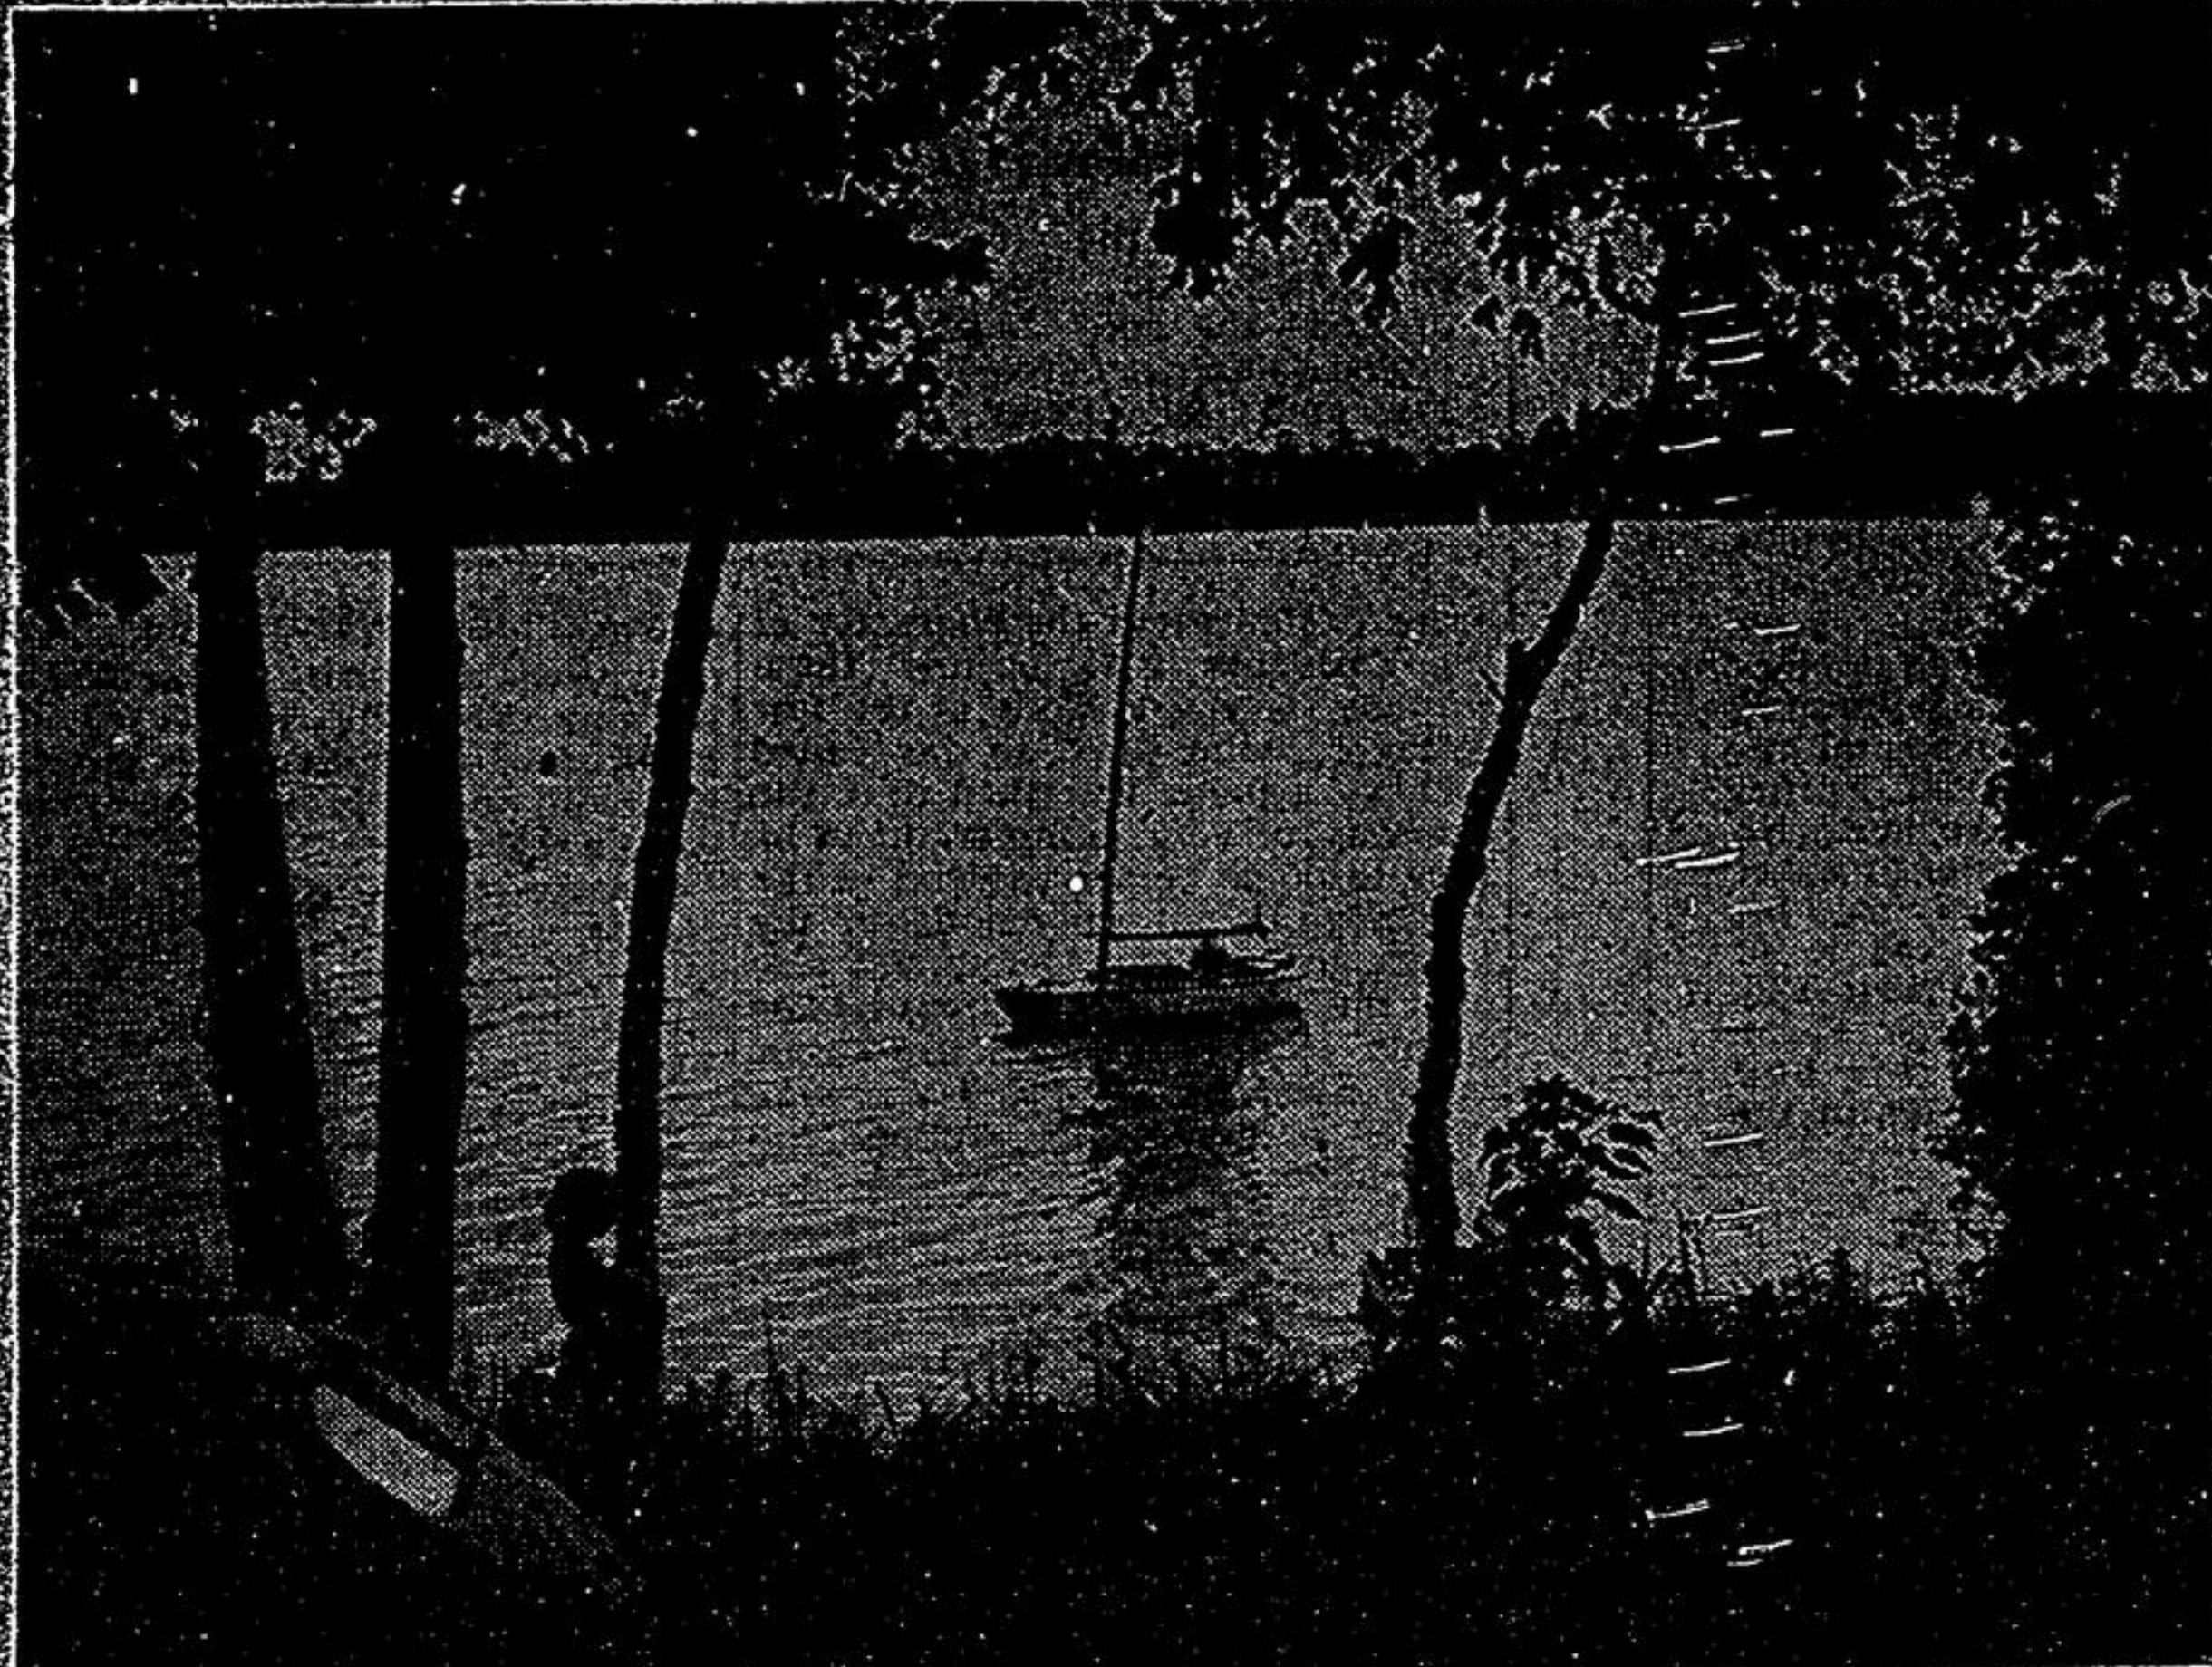

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Atkinson and family, who are on a motor trip to the west coast, have enjoyed perfect summer weather on their trip so far, they report to the Tribune.

96 YEARS OLD

Mr. Geo. Tran, well-known resident of con. 8, Pickering Twp., will mark his 96th birthday this Saturday, July 28th.

MUSSELMAN'S LAKE IS PICTURESQUE BODY OF WATER

In 1895, the following remarks were written in the Illustrated Free Press of Stouffville: 'It is fashionable to go to Stouffville on the Lake. But a few miles north from the town lies that lovely little sheet of water, a natural spring known as Musselman's Lake, and yet its beauty is not appreciated as it should be.

Summer School Has Record Attendance

A record average attendance of one hundred and thirty-two children has been enjoyed at the summer Bible school now being conducted at the United Missionary Church, Gormley, while it is not known if this attendance figure constitutes a record, it is considerably larger than anticipated.

Ratepayers Assoc. Valuable To Lake Over Eighteen Yrs.

After eighteen years of existence the Musselman's Lake Ratepayers Association has organized a body of its own. The fast changing population at the lake side has given way to smaller organizations. However, many of the old timers speak with pride of the many accomplishments of the organization.

Born in Claremont, John Newton Storry Passes in 77th Year

On Friday, July 20, John Newton Storry passed away at St. Michael's Hospital after a heart attack. Born in Claremont in the year 1857, the late Mr. Storry operated a mill at Washago, Ont. for some forty-two years before coming to Uxbridge where he has lived retired for the last four years.

St. Williams Catholic Church Marks 25th Anniversary

A real contribution to the summer colony at Musselman's Lake is the little white church on the hill overlooking Windsor Lake. It was built in 1909, that Mass was first celebrated at the lake.

Start New School At Wilcox Lake

Work on the new S.S. No. 13, Whittechurch Township school building will begin immediately with awarding of the contract Friday to Dan Cook, Oak Ridge contractor. Cost of the four-room frame school will be close to $40,000.

Begin Work On New Beach

Work was begun this week on the new beach located back of the new Community Hall on the north shore at Cedar Beach. The beach which will be used only by the cottagers in the Association is expected to cost in the neighborhood of $1,000.

Markham Township Plans to Extend Daily Working Hours For Their Road Machinery

Out of a discussion concerning the possible purchase of a new road maintainer to replace Markham Township's third machine damaged in the recent fire at Unionville, it was agreed that for the present more hours of work should be sought from the existing two machines.

No Fish Story

On Saturday afternoon Mr. Cliff Dwyer, son of Mr. Albert Dwyer who resides at West Nook Beach, Musselman's Lake, and Mr. Carl Bevens, son of Mr. H. A. Bevens on the same road, hauled into their boat four large fish weighing some 25 pounds.

New United Missionary Church To be Erected at Dickson's Hill

Plans have now been completed for the erection of a new Memorial Church building to replace the eighty-seven year old structure now in use. Bud Spang, contractor, has been given the contract for the work and anticipates having the new building completed by the new year.

Represents Canada At 'World Series' Plowing Match

Bob Timbers, well-known local member of this renowned family of plowmen, will represent the Dominion of Canada at the North American championship plowing match to be held this August at Bethany, Miss.

BORN AT EAST END 79 YEARS AGO

Mr. Henry McMullen passed his 79th milestone this week, and is possibly one of our oldest residents in point of years spent in Stouffville. Mr. McMullen was born on a farm quite near the east end and has spent his entire lifetime here.

Leaving several hot dogs a short time before mealtime doesn't spoil the growing boy's appetite—merely whets it.

Leaving several hot dogs a short time before mealtime doesn't spoil the growing boy's appetite—merely whets it.

Leaving several hot dogs a short time before mealtime doesn't spoil the growing boy's appetite—merely whets it.

Leaving several hot dogs a short time before mealtime doesn't spoil the growing boy's appetite—merely whets it.

Leaving several hot dogs a short time before mealtime doesn't spoil the growing boy's appetite—merely whets it.

Leaving several hot dogs a short time before mealtime doesn't spoil the growing boy's appetite—merely whets it.

Leaving several hot dogs a short time before mealtime doesn't spoil the growing boy's appetite—merely whets it.

Leaving several hot dogs a short time before mealtime doesn't spoil the growing boy's appetite—merely whets it.

Leaving several hot dogs a short time before mealtime doesn't spoil the growing boy's appetite—merely whets it.