

Local and Personal Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jackson and son Wayne of Church St. spent a few days last week in Ottawa.

Mr. Syd. Schmidt is back on the job as projectionist at the Stanley Theatre after a two week holiday. Mr. Brian Barnett of Toronto has been filling in during his absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Tait along with Mr. and Mrs. Andrews of Newmarket have returned from a two week vacation at their summer cottage at Minden, Ont.

Mr. Jim Huff of Florida was a visitor in town last week for a few days after an absence from this district for 42 years. During his stay he called on Mr. Jim Tindall of Altona, Mr. Jim Coates of Claremont, Mrs. George Patton and Mr. Charles Tindall who both reside in town. Although Mr. Huff is 81 years old he motored out and intends to return some time in September. A former Salvation Army worker Mr. Huff enjoys good health. Since his last trip through Stouffville the visitor reports so many changes that he could not begin to mention them.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Allison have been holidaying in the Eastern Counties.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hallman of Toronto were guests over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Shupe on Main Street.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Hoover on Sunday were Mr. Allan McMane, Miss Mary Ranney, and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Stover, all of Milverton.

Mr. Stuart Patrick, butcher in Aurora, is expected to take over the Glendale Pavilion at Musselman's Lake some time in October. Already some extensive changes have been planned by the new owner.

The South Shore Ratepayers Association held a very successful meeting on Sunday, Aug. 12, in the community church, 9th line. The president, Robt. Gray, was very pleased to see such a large attendance and how much enthusiasm there is in such a short time. Another meeting was held on Sunday, Aug. 19.

Some 150 men took part in the barn-raising on the farm of Geo. Fockler, 8th con. of Whitechurch, on Tuesday. The new building being erected by contractor Morley Symes is 70'x48', and is replacing an older barn located on this former Flewell property.

Friends will regret to learn that Mr. Lud Hoover who only recently celebrated his 80th birthday, was involved in a collision with a truck at the east end of town last week while riding one of his work horses. X-rays taken during the weekend revealed that Mr. Hoover suffered two broken bones in his ankles in the mishap, and will be off his feet for a couple of months it is expected.

Mr. Howard Malloy has completed the sale of a building lot 50'x150' on Market St. south, immediately below the property of the Stouffville Cleaners. Mr. Aida & Sons who purchased the lot contemplate the erection of a dwelling on the site. Mr. Malloy originally owned six lots in this area, and has now disposed of the entire lot for building purposes.

Miss A. B. Duncan is visiting friends at Drayton for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Button and family have returned after a three weeks' holiday at their cottage in Haliburton.

A considerable number of adults and children in town have been undergoing a siege of summer flu, while tonsillitis is prevalent among the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Gar Lehman and Mrs. O. Reaman have been enjoying a two week's vacation to the Atlantic seaboard.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred (Pete) Clendinning of Sudbury have been visiting with his father, Harve Clendinning and other friends and relatives here for a week. Always interested in local sports, Pete is one of four brothers who all played on the Stouffville Intermediate ball team some years ago.

Two properties changed hands in town during the last week reports Mr. H. W. Moyer. Mr. Marshman, formerly living on the 10th concession has bought a lot owned by Mr. Cecil Davis. The house on Rose Ave. owned by Mr. Jim Brown has been sold to a Mr. Pagett of Montreal.

Guests at the Daley Manor over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Alf Pipher, Miss Helen B. Thompson of Winnipeg, Man., Marie Day of Toronto, Zilla Pipher of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Pipher of Kelvington, Sask., Mr. and Mrs. Allan Pipher, Oshawa, Mr. and Mrs. Priscilla Pipher, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Wood of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spofford, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. James and David and Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Hoover of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nolan have returned from a week's motor trip which carried them more than fifteen hundred miles through the States to such American points as Syracuse, Boston, and Lake Placid. They were accompanied on the trip by Mr. and Mrs. Ken Laushway who remained at Kemptville for a few days to visit with Mrs. Laushway's sister, returning by air from Ottawa. Mr. and Mrs. Nolan visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Clark of Ottawa and formerly of Stouffville.

Mr. Norman Graham, brother of Delos Graham of Ballantrae, has been back in the home district for a visit this past week, his first time home in forty-four years. Norman Graham was born at Musselman's Lake and farmed on the east side of the lake at one time before going to the United States. Mr. Graham recalled selling a couple of acres of land to the late Bishop Evans, father of Wm. Evans, cottager of long-standing, and 75 acres to form the Shadow Lake Camp. Shadow Lake was known as McEwen Lake a half century ago. He recalled the death of Dan McEwen who perished beneath the waters of this quiet little body of water while attempting to retrieve a straw hat. "The water looks about the same," Mr. Graham told The Tribune, "but the lake could be cleaned up, it's too crowded." Mr. Graham was employed by Mr. Henry Brownberger, Ringwood, at one time. He is now located in Minneapolis, Minn., where he has been on the staff of the Northrup Seed Co., largest in the world, for thirty-four years.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Stouffer have returned from a holiday trip to Louisville, Kentucky.

Miss Mary McDougall of Margaret, Manitoba, is visiting her uncle, Mr. Christie Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos Hooper accompanied by Mrs. M. Crosier of Toronto are holidaying at Bala and points north.

Mr. James Ridout has joined the staff of the Stouffville Bakery and is ably turning out the "Honey-Dipt" yeast raised Do-nuts. These are being produced fresh daily.

Weekend visitors with Mrs. Robert Young of Church Street were her nephew Lawrence Dack of Thorncrest Village, a suburb of Toronto, and his wife and son Local guests attending the Cosh-Kelly wedding in Lindsay last Friday evening were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brodie and Keith, Brian and Neil, and Miss Janet Brodie. The bride is a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Brodie.

Weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLean, Church St., were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knaus of Port Huron, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLaughlin, Owen Sound, and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall McLaughlin and Douglas of Georgetown.

Markham Village Council struck the 1951 tax rate last week at 52 mills, an increase of seven mills over the 1950 figure. Main reason for increase were mounting school costs over which the municipal council has no control, and they amounted to six of the seven mills hoist in the rate.

The death occurred on Monday of this week of Hannah C. Watts, mother of M. E. Watts of Stiver Bros. firm, Stouffville. The late Mrs. Watts was in her 88th year and passed away at her home on Wellington St., Aurora. Her husband was the late Joseph Watts and she is survived by two sons, Mervin of Stouffville and Irwin of Aurora. The funeral service on Wednesday afternoon was conducted from the Thompson Funeral Home, Aurora, with interment in the Bethesda Lutheran Cemetery, Unionville.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ratcliff entertained members of the Stover family at their home on Sunday afternoon, Aug. 12th. Those present at the supper were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Reesor, Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman and daughters of Milverton, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Stover and Betty of Markham, Mr. and Mrs. Don Brown, Woodstock, Mr. and Mrs. Delos Brown and Susan of Colborne, Mrs. Percy Stover, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Stover and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spang, Mr. Ambrose Stover, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stover and family, all of Stouffville.

Something new in bargain offers is being introduced by Harry Golden's Clothing Store this week. When presented in payment for goods at this store, your baby bonus cheque is worth a 10% discount in your bill. Mothers who count on this government subsidy to cover the cost of "back to school" clothes should take special note of this offer at Golden's.

"One Foot in Heaven," now playing at Manor Rd. Theatre, Toronto, is from the book written by Rev. Wm. Spence, a graduate of Victoria University, Toronto. Rev. Dr. Norman Vincent Peake of Mable Collegiate, church, New York, went to Hollywood as director of the production, selecting material, etc. Dr. Peake is the son-in-law of Rev. and Mrs. Frank B. Stafford, the latter a graduate of Victoria also and friend of the author. Mrs. Stafford is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Crosby, Markham. So Markham, Stouffville and Scarboro where Mr. Stafford ministered as a student have an interest in "One Foot in Heaven. It is a wholesome, witty play and deserves success. Dr. Bert Brace, late of China, was also a friend of the author and graduate of Victoria.

Funeral services were held last Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Trull's Funeral Home, 2704 Yonge St., Toronto, for Mrs. J. D. Aitchison of 84 Spring Garden Ave., Willowdale, Ont. Interment was at Dickson's Hill Cemetery. Death was caused by a heart attack. The deceased was the last surviving member of the family of the late James McGuckin and Catheran Burkholder, and was born in 1873 in the township of Uxbridge, adjacent to the village of Goodwood. A few years later her parents moved to Goodwood and it was there she spent her girlhood days, coming to reside in Stouffville with her parents about the turn of the century. In 1907 she was united in marriage, to her now sorrowing husband, who with an only daughter, Mrs. W. E. Kent, (Isabelle) now mourn her passing. The Aitchisons made their home in Stouffville until 1926 when they went to Toronto, and almost three years ago established their present home in Willowdale. Mrs. Aitchison was a member of Glenview Presbyterian Church. She loved children, flowers, and her church work, and will be missed by a large circle of friends.

WEDDINGS

ANDERSON-ELLIOTT
On Saturday, Aug. 18, 1951, at 7 o'clock, in Glebe Road United Church, Toronto, by the Rev. R. Harold Parr, Helen Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. William Scott Elliott of Uxbridge, to Morson Edgar-Anderson, son of Mrs. Margaret Anderson of Uxbridge.

MASTERS-HURD
On Saturday, Aug. 18, at 7 o'clock, in Prospect Park United Church, Toronto, by Rev. A. W. March, Jean Byrel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Hurd, to Robert John Masters, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Masters of Stouffville.

WILSON-WOOD
Standards of pink and white gladioli formed the floral setting in Stouffville United Church on Saturday, Aug. 11th, for the marriage of Leone Wood, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wood, to Thomas E. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wilson, Toronto. Rev. Douglas Davis officiated. Mrs. A. J. Woods, Markham, was at the organ and Mrs. E. J. Clark, also of Markham, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a blush satin gown, lace redingote with fly-away collar, and slight train. A matching headdress; outlined with seed pearls from her mother's wedding dress, held her finger-tip veil of tulle illusion. She carried a cascade of Talisman roses and stephanotis. Miss Margaret Fraser of Newmarket, maid of honour, wore apple green nylon. Miss Joy Wood was bridesmaid in pink nylon. Both were over strapless taffeta gowns with pleated shoulder bouquets of cream roses and pink gladioli petals. Mr. Dean Wilson was groomsman for his brother. Mr. George Kerr and Mr. Earl Wood were ushers.

At the home of the bride's parents the bride's mother received wearing old rose crepe and lace with navy accessories. Mrs. Dean Wilson who assisted chose hunter's green crepe. Each wore a corsage of cream roses.

For travelling the bride wore a pink linen suit, navy accessories and white corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will reside in Toronto.

COSH-KELLY
Ferns and gladioli in pastel shades, and tall candelabra provided the background in William St. Baptist Church, Lindsay, on Friday evening, Aug. 17th, when Margaret Helen, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Kelly of Oakwood, was united in marriage with George Grenville Cosh, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Cosh of Bobcaygeon. Miss Beulah Cosh, sister of the groom, presided at the organ; and during the signing of the register Miss Roberta Wright of Bobcaygeon sang "I'll Walk Beside You."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming gown of white marquisette and lace over taffeta, with halo and shoulder-length veil. Her bouquet was a cascade of American Beauty roses and stephanotis; She wore a rhinestone necklace, the gift of the groom. Miss Frances Kelly of Toronto was her sister's bridesmaid in yellow net and lace over taffeta with matching cap and mittens, and she chose a Colonial bouquet. Mr. Ross Kimble of Bobcaygeon was groomsman. The ushers were brothers of the groom, William and Clarence Cosh.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. Searle, who made a popular toastmaster at the reception following in the Royal Coach Inn in Lindsay. The brides' mother wore navy sheer and white with corsage of pink carnations, while the groom's mother wore ice blue crepe with a similar corsage.

For travelling the bride wore a suit of chartreuse with brown accessories, and corsage of Talisman roses. Mr. and Mrs. Cosh will reside in Bobcaygeon.

JOY Beauty Salon
(near C.N.R.)

Permanent Waving
Individual Styling
Razor Shaping
Phone Stouffville 98w2

Stouffville Machine & Tool Works
Telephone 233
Rear of C.N.R. Station
Electric and Acetylene Welding
FARM MACHINERY
Machinery Repairs

Any RUNTS to Feed?

Give Them a REAL LIFT with a new Purina concentrate with an extra big nutritional wallop for runty, unthrifty pigs and hogs. Purina Pig-Plus is a real pig booster — packed full of extra vitamins, antibiotic supplement, and trace minerals. You just add Pig-Plus at 2% level to the total ration, and feed for a two-week period. Then watch those poor-doers snap out of it, eat more feed and begin to make economical gains. Purina Pig-Plus has many uses. Consult us today about this amazing combination of growth promoters for unthrifty, runty pigs. It costs only a few cents per day to feed each pig — and it doesn't take much added gain to pay for that!

Purina PIG-PLUS

New Purina PIG STARTENA

a brand new complete creep feed in checker form designed to do the same job as Purina Pig-Plus if you are short of grain or prefer a ready-mixed feed. Purina Research shows more gain on runts with Pig Startena than even with Sow and Pig Chow. Purina Pig Startena is a carefully blended combination of plus nutritional factors that poor-doing pigs need for a real lift — rich in vitamins, antibiotic supplement, and trace minerals — those ingredients most effective as nutritional boosters, and stimulators of growth and appetite. Try some today on your unthrifty pigs.

USE EITHER ONE -

There's a place for one or the other of these outstanding products in your management program. No matter how good a manager you may be, something goes wrong once in a while — disease strikes, pigs go off feed, too many pigs for the sow to raise, and so on. When these things happen, either of these products, used right — gives a Big Nutritional Boost.

We Are Buyers Of -
ONTARIO FALL WHEAT
STIVER BROS.
Stouffville Ontario

FALL FERTILIZERS

WE CAN PROVIDE A WIDE CHOICE OF FERTILIZER ANALYSIS

BUT

HAVE YOU EVER CONSIDERED THE SAVINGS IN USING HIGH ANALYSIS FERTILIZERS

EXAMPLE -
2 tons 2-12-6 at $45.30 per ton delivered - $90.60
1 ton 4-24-12 at $81.10 per ton delivered - 81.10
Both have the same amount of Plant food but the saving is $ 9.50

AND

you only handle 20 bags of 4-24-12 compared to 40 bags of 2-12-6.

STOUFFVILLE CO-OP

Phone 269 or 122