September Weddings

SWAZEY—MILLER
A pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday, Sept. 15, in the United Church, Stouffville, when Patricia Faye Miller, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, became the bride of Lance Cpl. Lloyd Thomas Swazey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Swazey of New Brunswick. Rev. Douglas Davis officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a strapless gown of nylon net over taffeta. The bodice and peplum were of chantilly lace with jacket to match with Queen Ann collar. Her head-dress was of accordion pleated satin studded with seed pearls and rhinestones and held a finger-tip veil of tulle and French lace. Mrs. V. Kennedy, sister of the bride, was matron of honour and wore a pale pink faille gown. Miss Donna Keeping, bridesmaid, was in turquoise faille. Little Carolanne Kennedy, niece of the bride, wore a full length dress of yellow organdy. The bride's bouquet was white chrysanthemums while the attendants carried nosegays of mixed flowers. Pte. Howard Beach was best man. Ushers were Lance Cpl. Martin Miller, brother of the bride, and Mr. Herb Beach.

The reception was held at the home of the bride. The bride's mother received in a dark green crepe and lace dress with cocoa brown accessories and a corsage of tea roses.
For travelling to the U.S.A. the bride chose a powder blue gabardine suit with black velvet accessories and corsage of pink roses. On their return the happy couple will reside in Barrie.

HOCKLEY—THOMPSON
In Stouffville United Church on Sept. 8, Grace Arlene Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Finley Thompson, Goodwood, became the bride of Carl Phillip Hockley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hockley, Uxbridge. Rev. Douglas Davis officiated.

The bride looked lovely in a light blue street length dress of nylon marquisette over taffeta with navy accessories and corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Robt. James, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid wearing lilac sheer and black accessories with corsage of yellow roses. Mr. John Hockley, brother of the groom, was best man.

For the reception at the home of the bride's parents, the bride's mother received wearing plum crepe and corsage of cream roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother wearing grey crepe and corsage of yellow roses.

For a wedding trip to the U.S.A. the bride chose a navy gabardine suit, navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

IRELAND—FOSTER
Pink gladioli formed the setting in Aurora United Church on Saturday, Sept. 15th, for the marriage of Dorothy Lillian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Foster, to Melville Roy Ireland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ireland, Schomberg. Rev. Harvey Howey performed the ceremony. Mrs. Iltyd Harris was at the organ and Mrs. Grant Morley sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white gown of printed organza, high neckline, and a floor-length tulle veil caught with a headdress of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a cascade of red roses and white carnations. Mrs. Elmer Lee, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Mrs. Donald Norton, sister of the bride, and Miss Ireland, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. Little Lorraine Ireland, niece of the groom was flower girl. All attendants wore net over taffeta gowns of orchid, blue, yellow and green respectively with matching headdresses of tulle caught by a bandeau of flowers. They carried nosegays of fall flowers. The best man was Mr. Ireland, brother of the groom. The ushers were Mr. Dudley Foster, brother of the bride, and Mr. Ireland, brother of the groom.

The reception was held at the Baptist Church Hall where the bride's mother received the guests wearing a plum-shade crepe dress, black accessories and a corsage of yellow gladioli and rose buds. She was assisted by the groom's mother wearing navy blue figured crepe and navy accessories and corsage of yellow gladioli and rose buds.

For travelling through Northern Ontario and Ottawa the bride chose a blue-grey gabardine suit with navy accessories and a corsage of pink gladioli and roses. The young couple will reside in Aurora on their return.
Guests were present from Guelph, Toronto, Zephyr, Keswick, Bethesda and Vandorf.

GROVE—BECHTEL
Dorothy Helen Bechtel, R.N., daughter of Nelson Bechtel, Hespeler, became the bride of Merlin Russel Grove, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Grove of Markham, in a lovely autumn ceremony solemnized in the Wanner Mennonite Church, Beavertown on Tuesday, Sept. 11, at 3 p.m. Rev. John H. Hess, associated pastor of First Mennonite Church, Kitchener, performed the ceremony before a background of gladioli, asters and fern.

Miss Joan Reesor attended the bride and Mr. Willis Hoover was groomsmen. Mr. Howard Cressman, cousin of the bride, and Mr. Lloyd Grove, cousin of the groom, acted as ushers. The Rockway Male Quartette, one of which was Mr. George Bechtel, brother of the bride, rendered several numbers in song.

A reception for eighty guests was held in the church Sunday School room. Guests were present from Elmira, Preston, Kitchener, Blair, Galt, Hamilton, Buffalo, Markham and Hespeler.
Later the happy couple left for a honeymoon in Virginia and other States.

TEEFY—GORMAN
In a double ring ceremony at St. Francis de Sales R.C. Church, Pickering, Theresa Gorman of Vancouver became the bride of James Hugh Teefy, Cherrywood, son of William Teefy and the late Mrs. Teefy. Rev. McCormick officiated.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. E. J. Hogan, the bride wore a gown of heavy ivory satin with a net yoke. The skirt fell in a short train. A satin cap trimmed with pearls held her full length veil. She carried a prayer book incased in mother of pearl, with long white streamers of satin ribbon garlanded with sweetpeas and fern. Rita Teefy, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid gowned in orchid taffeta with nylon marquisette overskirt and matching cap. She carried yellow roses. Two little flower girls, nieces of the groom, Joanne Teefy and Mary Patricia Byrne, wore yellow and mauve taffeta gowns and carried nosegays of sweet peas. Edward Teefy was his brother's best man. Gerald Teefy and Morgan O'Connor were the ushers.

At the wedding breakfast held at the groom's own home, the bride's mother, Mrs. M. Groce, also the bride's sister, both of Vancouver, B.C., received with the bride and groom.

The happy couple left for the honeymoon in the States. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm at Cherrywood.

MOYER—TRELEAVEN
Baskets of gladioli and fall flowers decorated the Second Markham Baptist Church on Saturday, Sept. 15, for the marriage of Vera Doreen Treleaven, daughter of Mrs. P. Treleaven, Listowel, and David Warren Moyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moyer, Rev. N. Rowan, assisted by Rev. C. Berry, officiated. Miss Marion Barkey presided at the organ, and Mr. Howard Baker sang "O Perfect Love," and "Together Life's Pathway We Tread."

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. Arthur Steckley, wore a gown of white satin, fashioned with a Queen Anne collar and full skirt which fell into a slight train. A sweetheart headpiece of lace with satin trim held her full length embroidered veil. She carried a cascade of red roses. Miss Barbara Steckley, her only attendant, was gowned in a taffeta frock of lime green with matching headdress and carried a nosegay of mixed flowers. Mr. Willard Moyer, brother of the groom, was best man. Lawrence Barkey and Lester Eby were ushers.

At the reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Steckley the bride's mother received, wearing a dusty rose dress of crepe with lace trim with brown accessories, and wore a corsage of red roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother in a dress of chocolate brown with darker brown accessories and a corsage of red roses.

For their trip in the United States the bride wore a wine gabardine suit with navy accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Moyer will reside on their farm at Dickson Hill.

BOY STUNNED BY 4,000 VOLTS

Terry Kennedy, right, of Georgetown, Ont., had 4,000 volts pass through him when he touched a wire in the town's hydro-electric station. While his father, shown with him, tried vainly to climb over the high fence surrounding the station, the four-year-old boy lay on the ground barely breathing. A hydro employee, George McCullum, unlocked the gate, applied artificial respiration until Terry revived. He was burned on the face, hands and neck, where sparks flew off him when he touched the wire.

CEDAR GROVE

This Saturday afternoon Evelyn Croucher is giving a joint welcome tea to introduce to our community two new members, Mrs. Harold Lapp and the new school teacher, Miss Marg Hennessey. It promises to be a gay event and we hope both newcomers will find lots of new friends in Cedar Grove. Miss Hennessey's home is in Ruby, Ont., about a 100 miles north of Ottawa Falls, 300 miles north of Port Arthur where she has been teaching for the past year.

Dates to Remember—Sept. 24th, Monday, euchre in the school. Come one, come all. Sept. 25th, Tuesday, note change, last Community Club meeting before Markham Fair. It will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Croucher.

When Irene Reesor spoke to the Young People of Cedar Grove about her work with the Indian children in Walpole Island, she extended an invitation to six of our girls to visit her there any time. This weekend six girls are taking advantage of this invitation. This leads to a few changes in the schedule of activities at Zion church. The Rally service has been postponed one week to Sept. 30th and will take place at the fall time, 1:30 p.m. The Missionary Sunday will be held this week, Sept. 23rd.

Elliott Harrington motored to Sudbury last Sunday to watch Maplewoods ball team beat Sudbury.

Jack Often went up to Scotia Junction last Sunday to move Jim Reesor to Emsdale, about 40 miles. There were several visitors in the village during the past week. Leona Brown was visiting Ella Coakwell with side visits to several friends and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Johnson, Sunderland, and Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Johnson, Blackwater,

Member of Famous Family Visits Town

Dr. Paul Rothchild, a member of the famous Rothchild family of Germany, paid a visit to Stouffville last week for two days and during his stay entertained the three town doctors to a dinner at the Mayfair restaurant. Dr. Ball, Dr. Button and Dr. Freel invited Dr. Rothchild to their offices and received much valuable information from his talks. Dr. Rothchild was a medical officer with the British army during World War II and has travelled extensively through such countries as Persia, India, Iran and Italy. The famous doctor came to Toronto from New York by air and returned to Montreal by train. The Empress of France will take him back to his home city of London, England. This same ocean liner will carry Princess Elizabeth to Canada on its return trip. It is the Doctor's first trip into this district. His daughter-in-law, Mrs. Helen Rothchild, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burkholder, resides in London, England.

GOODWOOD

The Merry Mixers are opening their fall season with a crokinole party in the United Church basement on Friday, Sept. 28th. All adults welcome.

The regular meeting of the B.Y.P.U. will be held on Friday evening in the Baptist Church. Mr. Tyler who is a returned missionary from China will be the guest speaker. A sound picture in color "The Flower of Tibet," will be a feature of the program. All are welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Forsythe, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis and daughter of Toronto visited his brother, Mr. F. A. Forsythe, on Sunday.

About seventy gathered for fun and frolic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baldwin on Friday last. A corn roast sponsored by the B.Y.P.U. was the occasion. After a program of songs and games around the campfire all were ready for the corn and hot dogs.

Mrs. Roy Bates and Miss Flora Minard of Rockford, Illinois, visited Mrs. Don Spencley and Mr. Pierre Evans on Tuesday.

Rally day services will be held in the United Church at 11 a.m. Sunday, Sept. 23rd. The speaker for this service will be Mrs. Muir of Stouffville, a returned missionary from China. Special music will be provided by the Quaker Hill Men's Quartette.
